

Contents

Preface	7
1. About this book.....	9
2. About Plato and his works	10
3. About Platonic dialogues, and about the Theaetetus	12
4. The overall structure of the Theaetetus	15
5. Alternative interpretations of the Theaetetus as a whole	16
6. The introduction to the dialogue: 142a-145e	25
7. The question “What is knowledge?”, and the rejection of D0 , a definition by examples: 145e7-147c6.....	33
8. A contrasting case: definition in mathematics: 147c7-148e5	39
9. Socrates the midwife’s apprentice: 148e6-151d7	42
10. First definition (D1) and consequent discussion: “Knowledge is perception”: survey of 151-187	48
11. The statement of Theaetetus’ first genuine definition (D1): 151d8-e4	53
12. First statement of Protagoras’ views: 151e5-152c8	56
13. First statement of Heracleitus’ views: 152c8-152e1	62
14. Eight bad arguments for the doctrine of flux: 152e1-153d5	65
15. Three shocking implications of flux: 153d6-155c7	67
16. The flux theory of perception: 155c8-157c.....	72
17. The Dreamer objection to the flux theory of perception: 157c2-160e1	79
18. The refutation of the thesis that knowledge is perception (160e2-187b1): introductory remarks	86
19. Three objections to Protagoras’ homomensura thesis: 160-163a.....	88

20. Four objections to D1 : 163a7-168c2.....	94
21. Objection H to Protagoras: the Peritropê: 168c2-171c7	108
22. Objection I to Protagoras: divorcing justice from benefit: 171c7-172b9.....	118
23. The Digression: 172c1-177b8.....	121
24. Objection J to Protagoras: expertise and the future: 177b8-179b9.....	129
25. Objection K to Heracleitus: flux and self-refutation: 179c1-183c2.....	133
26. Objection L : the final refutation of D1 : 183c3-187a9	141
27. Second definition (D2) and consequent discussion: “Knowledge is true belief”: survey of 187-201	150
28. First puzzle about false belief: misidentification: 187e5-188c7.....	158
29. Second puzzle about false belief: “believing what is not”: 188c8-189b9	163
30. Third puzzle about false belief: allodoxia : 189b10-190e4.....	166
31. Fourth puzzle about false belief: the wax tablet: 190e5-196c6.....	172
32. Fifth puzzle about false belief: the aviary: 196c7-200d4	184
33. The final refutation of D2 : 200d5-201c7	193
34. Third definition (D3) and consequent discussion: “Knowledge is true belief with an account”: survey of 201c8-210d4.....	197
35. The Dream of Socrates: 201d8-202d7	202
36. Critique of the Dream Theory: 202d8-206c2.....	213
37. First attempt to understand logos : as speech : 206c2-e3	223
38. Second attempt to understand logos : as an account that goes through the elements : 206e4-208b10.....	225
39. Third attempt to understand logos : as an account of the sêmeion : 208b11-210a9..	229
40. Conclusion: 210a9-210d4	236
Glossary	239
Bibliography	243