
CONTENTS

Foreword	xiii
Preface	xvii
INTRODUCTION
EXISTENTIAL-INTEGRATIVE PSYCHOLOGY:
A BEGINNING	1
References	8

PART ONE

HISTORICAL ROOTS OF EXISTENTIAL- INTEGRATIVE PSYCHOLOGY

1. LITERARY ROOTS	11
The Tragedy of Truth about Oneself
(Rollo May)	12
The Therapist and the Journey into Hell
(Rollo May)	19
Goethe's Faust and the Enlightenment
(Rollo May)	29
Gatsby and the Myth of Sisyphus
(Rollo May)	39

Hitchcock's Vertigo: An Existential View of Spirituality (Kirk Schneider)	45
References	52
2. PHILOSOPHICAL ROOTS	53
Eastern Roots of Existential Philosophy	54
The Western Existential Tradition	55
Socrates	55
Blaise Pascal	56
Søren Kierkegaard	57
Friedrich Nietzsche	58
Edmund Husserl	59
Martin Heidegger	60
Jean-Paul Sartre	61
Recap	62
Maurice Merleau-Ponty	62
Martin Buber	63
Paul Tillich	64
The Task of Existential Philosophy at Present	66
Dread as a Saving Experience by Means of Faith (Søren Kierkegaard)	67
On the Despisers of the Body (Friedrich Nietzsche)	70
The Myth of Sisyphus (Albert Camus)	72
References	74
3. PSYCHOLOGICAL ROOTS	77
The Legacy of William James (1842–1910)	77
Otto Rank (1884–1939)	80
Origins and Significance of Existential Psychology (Rollo May)	82
How Existentialism and Psychoanalysis Arose out of the Same Cultural Situation (Rollo May)	89
What Psychology Can Learn from the Existentialists (Abraham Maslow)	92
The Wounded Healer (Rollo May)	98
Rollo May: Personal Reflections and Appreciation (James Bugental)	102
R. D. Laing Remembered (Kirk Schneider)	105

For Ronnie Laing (Thomas Greening)	108
Master of Duality: Some Personal Reflections about James Bugental (Kirk Schneider)	108
Kierkegaard's Characterology (Ernest Becker)	111
References	114

PART TWO

RECENT AND FUTURE TRENDS IN EXISTENTIAL- INTEGRATIVE PSYCHOLOGY

4. FROM SEGREGATION TO INTEGRATION	119
Existential Psychology from within the Training Process (Ann Bassett-Short and Glenn Hammel)	125
References	130

PART THREE

THERAPEUTIC APPLICATIONS OF EXISTENTIAL- INTEGRATIVE PSYCHOLOGY

5. GUIDELINES FOR AN EXISTENTIAL-INTEGRATIVE (EI) APPROACH	135
How the Chapter Is Organized	135
Theory of the Existential-Integrative (EI) Approach	136
Therapy as Liberation Strategies/Consciousness as Liberation Levels	136
Constriction (Smallness) and Expansion (Greatness) as Omnipresent Horizons	141
Developmental View	142
Therapeutic Implications of the Theory	145
How to Select Appropriate Liberation Strategies	145
Use of Nonexperiential Liberation Strategies	147
Use of Semi-Experiential Liberation Strategies	148
The Experiential Liberation Strategy	152
Presence: A Primary Nutrient	153
Smallness-Greatness "Clustering": Keys to Experiential Work	154
Invoking the Actual: Creatively Inspiring Presence	155

Vivifying and Confronting Resistance	167
Meaning-Creation	171
Summary of the Four Intervention Phases of the Experiential Liberation Strategy	174
Ways the Intervention Phases Utilize the Constrictive-Expansive Continuum	175
Summary of EI Decision Points	176
Skill-Building Exercises: Suggestions for Instructors	176
I Personal Exercises	177
II Clinical Exercises	178
Notes	180
References	181
6. CASE ILLUSTRATIONS OF EXPERIENTIAL LIBERATION	185
Black and Impotent: The Case of Mercedes (Rollo May)	186
EI Case Formulation	195
EI Case Formulation—Mercedes	195
A Depressed Artist: The Case of Amanda (Chris Armstrong and James Bugental)	197
EI Case Formulation—Amanda	203
An African-American Perspective: The Case of Darrin (Don Rice)	204
EI Case Formulation—Darrin	213
An Obsessive-Compulsive Male: The Case of Ron (Ed Mendelowitz)	215
EI Case Formulation—Ron	225
A Gay and Lesbian Perspective: The Case of Marcia (Joan Monheit)	226
EI Case Formulation—Marcia	232
Psychotic Clients, Laing's Treatment Philosophy, and the Fidelity to Experience in Existential Psychoanalysis (Michael Guy Thompson)	233
EI Case Formulation—Jerome	246
Existentialism of Personalism: A Native-American Perspective (Royal Alsup)	247
EI Case Formulation: A Native-American Girl	253

Brief Encounters with Chinese Clients: The Case of Peter (John Galvin)	254
EI Case Formulation—Peter	260
Preliminary Sketches for a Short-Term Existential-Humanistic Therapy (James Bugental)	261
A Perspective on Alcoholism: The Case of Mr. P (Barbara Ballinger, Robert Matano, and Adrianne Amantea)	264
EI Case Formulation—Mr. P	270
Notes on the Single Woman: The Anne Sexton Complex (Ilene Serlin)	271
EI Case Formulation—Maria	285
A Widow's Experience: The Case of Elva (Irvin Yalom)	286
EI Case Formulation—Elva	292
An Existential-Spiritual Perspective: The Case of Sara (Paul Bowman)	293
EI Case Formulation—Sara	300
The Inner Sense of the Child: The Case of Joey (Steve Curtin)	301
EI Case Formulation—Joey	307
Dialogical (Buberian) Therapy: The Case of Dawn (Maurice Friedman)	308
EI Case Formulation—Dawn	314
Reflections on the Depressed and Dying: The Case of Carol (Tom Greening)	315
EI Case Formulation—Carol	318
THE PSYCHOLOGY OF EXISTENCE: SUMMARY AND CONCLUSION	321
Acknowledgments	323
Index	325