

Contents

1	Introduction	1
	References	5
2	Diagnostics of Destructive Propaganda	7
	References	9
3	Ukraine’s Reaction to Propaganda in Wartime Conditions	11
	References	13
4	Ukrainian Cases on the Propaganda of Changing the Constitutional Order or State Borders	15
4.1	Court Judgments Declaring Propaganda Content as Criminal	16
4.2	Court Verdicts Where the Dissemination of Propaganda Content Was Justified	18
4.3	Court Verdicts Against People Who Spread Communist Symbols	23
	References	24
5	Hate Speech	27
5.1	Some Ukrainian Cases Involving Hate Speech	31
5.2	Some German Cases About Hate Speech	35
5.3	NetzDG	36
	References	37
6	Freedom of Speech in the Conditions of an Armed Conflict	41
6.1	Searching for a Balance Between Criticism of the Government in Wartime, a Refusal to Mobilise and the Protection of National Interests on the Example of Ukraine	43
6.2	The Issue of Ethnic Relations and Hate Speech Using the Example of Bosnia	44

6.3	The Duty of the Press to Share Information and Ideas on Policy Issues, Including Controversial Ones, and the Public's Right to Receive Them—Using the Example of Turkey	47
	References	48
7	Conclusion	49
	References	51