

Contents

Preface	x
1 Dialogue and law – new horizons	1
1.1 Legal thinking in context	6
1.2 Law and society	8
1.3 Practising law	9
1.4 Diversity	12
1.5 Lawyers in Wonderland	14
1.6 Our communications age	18
2 Law as communication, communication as law	22
2.1 Contextual change	26
2.2 Changing legal communication	30
2.3 Your communication issues	33
2.4 Communication as access to justice	35
2.5 Technology and the law	39
PART I THE COMMUNICATING LAWYER
3 Emotional lawyering	44
3.1 Contest, persuade, consult or resolve?	50
3.2 Mental health	60
4 Collaborative lawyering	64
4.1 Relational lawyering	65
4.2 The augmented lawyer	67
4.3 Context	69
4.4 Tackling bias	70

4.5	The collaborative process	71
4.6	A collaborative LegalTech ecosystem	75
4.7	Women's LegalTech problem	76
4.8	Sexual orientation	77
4.9	Disabilities	78
4.10	Generational differences	80
4.11	Boundaries of collaboration	81
4.12	Broken business model?	81
5	Changing channels	86
5.1	Infusion ... not cascading	87
5.2	Embracing training	89
5.3	Choosing channels	91
5.4	The ubiquitous email	94
5.5	Social media	97
5.6	Face-to-face communication	98
5.7	Death by PowerPoint	99
5.8	Meetings mania	101
5.9	Print versus digital	102
5.10	External media	103
6	Changing paradigms – confront or collaborate?	105
6.1	The legal pyramid	105
6.2	Changing courts	108
6.3	Negotiation	110
6.4	Mediation	116
6.5	Arbitration	118
6.6	Litigation	121

PART II THE DIALOGUE BOX FOR LAWYERS

7	Introducing the Dialogue Box	126
7.1	Using the Dialogue Box	127
7.2	Practical steps: ready to dialogue?	135
8	The Intelligence Zone	137
8.1	Facts, norms and language	140

8.2	Knowledge and unknowns	144
8.3	Rational decision-making	146
8.4	Building the learning legal unit	149
8.5	Practical steps: Zone 1 – Intelligence	153
9	The Emotion Zone	155
9.1	Emotion, judgement and power	165
9.2	Lawyers and bullying	168
9.3	Emotionally intelligent decision-making	170
9.4	Practical steps: Zone 2 – Emotion	173
10	The Interpretation Zone	175
10.1	Agreement as a matter of interpretation	178
10.2	Interpreting intention	180
10.3	Legislation	184
10.4	Finding intention in statutory interpretation	185
10.5	Interpreting ‘ordinary meaning’	188
10.6	Reading interpretatively	189
10.7	Interpreting ‘with’	191
10.8	Practical steps: Zone 3 – Interpretation	193
11	The Narrative Zone	195
11.1	Narrative and persuasion	198
11.2	Enhancing legal narratology	200
11.3	Narrative bias	206
11.4	Narrating testimony	208
11.5	Understanding and using the narrative	210
11.6	Practical steps: Zone 4 – Narrative	211
12	Ready to dialogue?	214
12.1	A word about dialogue	217
12.2	The lawyer–client dialogue	220
12.3	Assaultive speech	222
12.4	Constitutional dialogue	225
12.5	Practical steps: Zone 5 – Dialogue	227
	Index	231