
Contents

List of contributors	vii
Foreword	xiii
Hon. Louise Arbour
Acknowledgements	xv
Introduction: international drug policy in an era of growing complexity, challenge and tension	xvi
David R. Bewley-Taylor and Khalid Tinasti
 PART I HISTORY OF INTERNATIONAL DRUG CONTROL
1 Foundations of the international drug control regime: nineteenth century to the Second World War William B. McAllister	2
2 The evolution of international drug control under the United Nations Constanza Sánchez-Avilés and Ondrej Ditrych	19
3 Drug consumers and the formation of the international drug control apparatus Christopher Hallam	38
 PART II THE GEOSPATIAL DIMENSIONS OF DRUG POLICY
4 North American drug policy: American and Canadian developments from the early twentieth century to today Katharine Neill Harris	54
5 Latin America and the Caribbean: complicity and legacy of a long war Juan Carlos Garzón and Ana María Rueda	72
6 Western and Central Europe: towards a cohesive model for drug policies? Renaud Colson and Henri Bergeron	94
7 Documenting human rights violations is not enough to reform archaic drug policies in Eastern Europe and Central Asia Mikhail Golichenko	113
8 Drug policy in Africa: a history of global and regional dynamics Neil Carrier and Gernot Klantschnig	131
9 Drug use, policies and prohibition in Muslim countries Khalid Tinasti	145

10	Drug policy in Asia: the origins and extremities of prohibition Gloria Lai and Claudia Stoicescu	163
11	The changing tides of drug consumption, supply and drug policy in Oceania Amber Marks and Caitlin Hughes	185
PART III EMERGING TENSIONS WITHIN THE UN DRUG CONTROL SYSTEM AND BEYOND
12	The rise and fall of the “drug free world” narrative Steve Rolles	206
13	Drug control and human rights: parallel universes, universal parallels Julie Hannah and Rick Lines	225
14	Public health and international drug control: harm reduction and access to controlled medicines Jennifer Hasselgard-Rowe, Naomi Burke-Shyne and Ann Fordham	248
15	Drugs and development: drug policies and the Global South Julia Buxton	265
16	Bolivia, coca, culture and colonialism Zoe Pearson	283
17	Regulating cannabis in Uruguay, the United States and Canada: is a social justice framework possible? Zara Snapp and Jorge Herrera Valderrábano	301
PART IV FUTURE CHALLENGES
18	The search for new drug policy metrics Nazlee Maghsoudi, Justine Tanguay and Dan Werb	325
19	The NPS imposters, merging and emerging drug markets and the contribution of drug checking Fiona Measham	341
20	Drug cryptomarket futures: structure, function and evolution in response to law enforcement actions Patrick Shortis, Judith Aldridge and Monica J. Barratt	355
	Index	381