

Contents

Preface	ix
Acknowledgements	xii
List of abbreviations	xiv
Table of cases	xv
1 Central features of the English legal system	1
Legal content:
1.1 The characteristics of English law	1
1.2 Common law and equity	3
1.3 Classifications of law	11
Language content:
Grammar: grammatical terms – noun, verb, adjective, adverb; identifying different grammatical forms of lexical items in texts; use of prepositions
Oral function: asking for meaning of words
Vocabulary: dictionary use; recognising dictionary order of words; finding appropriate (legal) meaning of words
2 The constitution	18
Legal content:
2.1 Definition and purpose	18
2.2 Characteristics of the British constitution	19
2.3 The constitutional role of the judiciary	25
2.4 Evaluation	38
Language content:
Grammar: dealing with complex sentences (using signpost words); constructions of the type 'ought not to have taken . . . '
Vocabulary: inferencing meaning from context; forming antonyms (un-, in-, il-, im-)
Oral function: asking for repetition
Study skills: notemaking symbols
3 Sources of law	43
Legal content:
3.1 Case law	43
3.2 Statute law	58

Language content:

Grammar: decoding long sentences (by identifying main clause); 'so' as a pro-form; unreal conditionals

Vocabulary: Latin plurals; adjectival suffixes

Study skills: bibliographical references

Revision 1: Legal knowledge and legal skills 714 The courts 76*Legal content:

4.1 Classification of the courts 76

4.2 The civil courts 77

4.3 The criminal courts 85

4.4 Tribunals and arbitration 91

Language content:

Grammar: long noun phrases

Vocabulary: dictionary use – using guidewords; verb + noun; noun collocations; negative affixes (-less, dis-, mis-)

5 The judiciary and the jury 96Legal content:

5.1 The judicial hierarchy 96

5.2 The judicial function 103

5.3 The independence of the judiciary 106

5.4 The jury 112

Language content:

Grammar: subject–verb inversion for emphasis after certain adverbs

Vocabulary: dictionary use – choosing the right meaning

Study skills: interpreting non-linear data

6 The provision of legal services 121Legal content:

6.1 The legal profession 121

6.2 The state funding of legal services 133

6.3 The unmet need for legal services 138

Language content:

Vocabulary: revision of prepositions

Oral function: presentation of arguments for and against

Study skills: use of signpost words to recognise arguments for and against

Revision 2: Legal knowledge and legal skills 143

7	Introduction to the law of contract	148
	Legal content:
	7.1 Introduction to contract	148
	7.2 Offer and acceptance	150
	7.3 Supermarket sales and ticket machines	155
	7.4 Communication of acceptance	160
	Language content:
	Vocabulary: negative adjective forms (in-, un-)
	Oral function: asking for the full form of abbreviations
	Study skills: recognising arguments and counter-arguments
8	An introduction to criminal law	170
	Legal content:
	8.1 The nature of crime	170
	8.2 Actus reus	175
	8.3 Mens rea	182
	8.4 The coincidence of actus reus and mens rea	191
	Language content:
	Grammar: 'pseudo-cleft' sentences; decoding long complex sentences by recognising parenthetical commas, conjunctions and relative clauses
	Vocabulary: everyday words with specific legal meaning
9	Law reform	198
	Legal content:
	9.1 The nature of law reform	198
	9.2 The process of law reform	203
	9.3 A case study in law reform: liability for defective premises	210
	9.4 The need for a Ministry of Justice?	213
	Language content:
	Grammar: use of the subjunctive after verbs of recommendation, demand, etc.; cohesion in a paragraph
10	The European dimension	220
	Legal content:
	10.1 The European Convention on Human Rights	220
	10.2 Article 10: A case study on the Convention	225
	10.3 The Convention as a Bill of Rights?	235
	10.4 The institutions of the European Community	238
	10.5 The law of the European Community	242
	10.6 Article 119: A case study on the EEC Treaty	251

Language content:

Grammar: possessive adjectives + gerund; 'neither' + verb inversion; subjunctive in 'be it . . . or . . .'; subject –verb inversion in unreal conditionals

Vocabulary: verb + noun collocations

Answers to questions	257
Appendix A: The Courts and Legal Services Act 1990	287
Appendix B: Criminal Justice	288
Appendix C: The European Community	289
Bibliography	291
Glossary of legal terms	294
Index	300