

Contents

Preface	9
Acknowledgements	11
PART ONE
i The existential-phenomenological foundations for a science of persons	15
ii The existential-phenomenological foundations for the understanding of psychosis	27
iii Ontological insecurity	40
PART TWO
iv The embodied and unembodied self	67
v The inner self in the schizoid condition	82
vi The false-self system	100
vii Self-consciousness	113
viii The case of Peter	129
PART THREE
ix Psychotic developments	147
x The self and the false self in a schizophrenic	172
xi The ghost of the weed garden: a study of a chronic schizophrenic	193
References	225
Index	233