

Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Preface xi

PART ONE: Death, Development, and Relationships 1

1. Explaining Death to Young Children:
Some Questions and Answers 3
Earl A. Grollman

2. Entering into Adolescent Understandings of Death 21
Charles A. Corr

3. Friends, Teachers, Movie Stars:
The Disenfranchised Grief of Children 37
Kenneth J. Doka

4. Talking to Children about the
Terminal Illness of a Loved One 47
Gerri L. Sweder

5. Toward Siblings' Understanding and Perspectives of Death 61
Betty Davies

PART TWO: Cultural, Philosophical, and Religious Perspectives on Death and Children 75

6. Children and Death: Diversity in Universality 77
Donald P. Irish

7. Behind Smiles and Laughter:
African-American Children's Issues about Bereavement 93
William Lee Jr.

Contents

---

8. Protestant Perspectives on Grief and Children 113
Richard B. Gilbert

9. Life, Death, and the Catholic Child 129
Mary Ann McLaughlin

10. Explaining Death to Children from Jewish Perspectives 141
Earl A. Grollman

11. A Philosopher Looks at Children and Death 159
John D. Morgan

PART THREE: Treatments and Therapies That Can Help Children Cope with Death 169

12. Care of the Dying Child 171
Ann Armstrong-Dailey

13. "I Thought about Death All the Time . . .": Students, Teachers, and the Understanding of Death 181
Robert G. Stevenson

14. Special Needs of Bereaved Children: Effective Tools for Helping 195
MaryAnne Schreder

15. Using Story, Film, and Drama to Help Children Cope with Death 213
Sandra L. Bertman

Index 231