

Contents

Focus: Law and Literature in the Era of the Digital Condition

Editorial

Shulamit Almog and Gal Amir

Focus: Law and Literature in the Era of the Digital Condition, an Introduction — 1

Focus

Vagias Karavas and Suad Salihu

The Legal Subject in the Society of Singularities: Prolegomena to the Legal Type of Personalized Law — 7

Kim Barker

Online Violence as a Digital Condition: A New Cultural Habit? — 27

Daniella Zlotnik Raz

The Poetics of Digital Children and Designing Online Democratic Deliberations — 47

Shulamit Almog and Gal Amir

Video Conferencing Platforms (VCPs) and the Cohesive Distinctiveness of Legal Proceedings — 65

Paola Carbone

Rethinking Tech, Reclaiming Ourselves: Human Dignity and Human Rights in Technological Age — 79

Research

Pier Giuseppe Monateri

Two Models of Faith and the Law in Paul and the Western Diaspora — 99

Anja Meyer

Beyond Words: The Politics of Language Control in Nineteen Eighty-Four — 125

Peter Schneck

Legitimate Possessions: History, Property and Literary Aesthetics in James F. Cooper's The Pioneers (1823) and Catherine M. Sedgwick's Hope Leslie (1827) — 143

Laura A. Zander

Judging Jo'burg? Fictional Architecture and the Postcolonial Cityscape as Juridical Space — 161

Jingyi Wan

Reproducing an Outside to Modernity at the Limit of the Law of Seriality: Reading Kawakami Mieko's Breasts and Eggs — 185

Sidia Fiorato

Law and the Media in Luke Delaney's The Jackdaw — 199

Book Reviews

Matteo Nicolini

Ian Ward, The Reformation of the Constitution. Law, Culture and Conflict in Jacobean England — 213

Ruth Houghton

Cathy Shrank and Phil Withington (eds.), The Oxford Handbook on Thomas More's Utopia — 219