

CONTENTS

List of illustrations	vii
Note on the text	ix
Glossary	x
Preface and acknowledgements	xii
Introduction. A 'Ukrainian Mark Twain' and the essence of Gulag medicine	1
 PART I. DOCTORS INSIDE THE BARBED WIRE
1 'They were the first': Pioneers of the Gulag medical service	39
2 'A nightmare parallel world': A chekist in the clinic?	61
3 'I Chose Kolyma': From the medical school benches to the hospitals of the Gulag	87
 PART II. CAREERS IN GULAG MEDICINE
4 'Feeling my way': Apprenticeships behind barbed wire	119
5 Sisters of mercy and Komsomol girls: Nursing in the Gulag	152

CONTENTS

- 6 The place where Death delights in helping Life: 180
A prisoner in the morgue

PART III. RESEARCHERS AND DREAMERS

- 7 'I do not assist simulators': A prisoner-psychiatrist 203
challenges Gulag conventions
- 8 'You will be singing these songs': The radium-water 227
spa of the zeks

- Conclusion. 'No archival materials will be gathered, 254
and people will scatter ...'

- Notes 267
Select bibliography 320
Index 337