

Contents

Foreword	9
Lesley Schatzberger
Acknowledgements	11
Introduction	13
Anna Ludwig
1. I'm Here, I'm with You, I See You, I'm Listening: Working with the Breath with Life-Limited and Life-Threatened Children.	21
Kirsty Ormston
2. Balancing the Public and the Private: Music Therapy in a Children's Hospice	31
Victoria Kammin
3. Music Therapy at Martin House Children's Hospice: The Developing Role in a Multidisciplinary Team	47
Cathy Ibberson and Mike Gilroy
4. Evaluating Music Therapy Services in Children's Hospices	67
Giorgos Tsiris and Janet McLachlan
5. Are We Singing from the Same Song Sheet?: The Scope and Provision of Music Therapy in Children's Hospices	87
Sarah Hodgkinson
6. Fostering the Relationship between Parent and Child using Music Therapy	99
Nathan Vanstone-Howe
7. From Small Beginnings: Music Therapy in the Community Setting for Children and Young People with Cancer	113
Anna Ludwig

8.	'Performing, Sharing and Celebrating Life': An Exploration of the Value of Performance in a Joint Music Therapy and Community Music Project in a Children's Hospice	127
	Victoria Kammin
9.	Continuing to Sing: Music Therapy, Identity and Empowerment in Young Adult's Palliative Care	145
	Kathryn Cave
10.	'The Screams Crashed into Silence': A Therapeutic Songwriting Project for Young Adults with Life-Shortening Illnesses	159
	Joanne Edgar, Giorgos Tsiris, Daphne Rickson
	About the Contributors	175
	Index	181