

OBSAH

1	Reflection on the Development of the Slovak Economy	3
1.1	The Turbulent Nineties	3
1.2	The Optimism of the First Millennium Decade	10
1.3	A Meeting with Reality	15
2	Bottlenecks in the Slovak economy	23
2.1	Institutional Quality	23
2.1.1	Why Institutions in Particular?	23
2.1.2	Assessment of the Institutional Framework	27
2.2	Innovation Performance	33
2.2.1	Slovakia within the European Innovation Assessment	36
2.2.2	Slovakia in the Worldwide Assessment of Innovation	39
2.3	Migration as a Driver of Innovation Potential	47
2.4	Digital Transformation	53
3	Competitiveness Gap of Slovakia	64
3.1	Competitiveness of Economies	64
3.2	Structural Aspects of Competitiveness	68
3.2.1	The Nature of Slovakia's Economic Openness	69
3.2.2	Qualitative Assessment of Competitiveness	71
4	Institutional Frameworks for Automotive Industry Development – Sustainable Competitiveness or Competitive Sustainability?	84
4.1	Dynamics of the Development of the EU Automotive Industry at the Beginning of the 3rd Millennium	84
4.2	Main Characteristics of the Automotive Industry in Slovakia and the EU at the Beginning of the 3rd Millennium	87
4.3	Institutional Frameworks for the Development of the Automotive Industry	95
4.4	Evolution of Industrial Policy in the Context of European Challenges	95
4.5	Concerns about Deindustrialization as an Accelerator of Renewed Interest in Industrial Policy in the EU	98
4.6	Industrial Policy Manoeuvring Space on the road to Automotive Emission Neutrality	101

Conclusion	107
References	112
Appendices	121