

Contents

Acronyms	vii
Contributors	xi
1. Post-Coup Myanmar's Political and Humanitarian Crises Anthony Ware and Monique Skidmore	1
2. Scenarios for Understanding Myanmar's Political and Humanitarian Crises Nicholas Farrelly	25
3. The Role of Social Media and Disruptive Technologies in Post-Coup Democracy Activism Jaydn (pseudonym), Monique Skidmore and Cecile Medail	47
4. Multinational Enterprise Behaviour in Post-Coup Myanmar Nicholas Coppel	71
5. Politics, Justice and Accountability: Myanmar and International Courts Adam Simpson and Juliette McIntyre	95
6. China-Myanmar Relations after the 1 February Military Coup Kristina Kironiska and Diya Jiang	119
7. Myanmar in ASEAN: Dilemmas, Determinants and Capacity Moe Thuzar	137
8. The Federal Democracy Charter: A Path to Inter-Ethnic Peace in Post-Coup Myanmar Costas Laoutides	163
9. Rakhine State Post-Coup: Arakan Army State-Building and Its Implications for Rohingya and Aid Anthony Ware and Costas Laoutides	185
10. Evolution of Communal Tensions in Rakhine State after the Coup Ye Min Zaw and Tay Zar Myo Win	209

11.	Pandemic Weaponisation and Non-State Welfare in Pre-and Post-Coup Myanmar	231
	Gerard McCarthy and Saw Moo (pseudonym)
12.	Localisation, Good Humanitarianism and Solidarity-Based Approaches to Aid in Myanmar	253
	Anne Décobert
13.	Relief as Resistance: (Re)Emergent Humanitarianism in Post-Coup Myanmar	277
	Aung Naing and Tamas Wells
14.	Myanmar's Higher Education Sector Post-Coup: Fracturing a Fragile System	297
	Charlotte Galloway
15.	The Aftermath: Policy Responses to Myanmar's Political and Humanitarian Crises	319
	Monique Skidmore and Anthony Ware

The full text of this book is available for free at <https://www.cambridge.org/core>. For more information on this license, please see the Terms of Use on the Cambridge Core website.