

Contents

---

Contributors	vii
John Haldane, Preface	xi
Samuel Gregg, Introduction	1

Part 1: Natural Law and Economics

Emma Rothschild, Faith, Enlightenment, and Economics	17
Craig Smith, Adam Smith and Natural Law	24
Arthur Waldron, China, Natural Law, and Economics: The Discourses on Salt and Iron	38
Benn Steil, Globalism and Natural Law: A Brief History	65
Louis W. Pauly, Supraterritorial Obligations, the Global Economy, and the Changing Politics of Responsibility	94
Samuel Gregg & James R. Stoner, Jr., Natural Law and Property Rights	121
Edward Skidelsky, The Emancipation of Avarice	154
Samuel Gregg, Money and Its Future in the Global Economy	169
Gerald P. O'Driscoll, Jr., Monetary Order for a Free Society	193
Harold James, The Financial Crisis and the Disciplinary Challenge of Natural Law	207

---

Part 2: Economics and the Common Good

Philip Booth , The Crash of 2008: A Discussion of its Causes and their Relationship to Ethical Issues	227
Amity Shlaes , The Limits of Cardiology: Forgotten Factors in the Great Depression and the Current Period	244
Robert Skidelsky , The Great Recession: Causes and Cures	262
Ludger Schuknecht , Booms, Busts, and Fiscal Policy: Public Finances in the Future	276
Index	300