Sing-Song: A Nursery Rhyme Book (1872)

- Angels at the foot 227
 Love me, - I love you 227
 My baby has a father and a mother 227
 Our little baby fell asleep 228
 "Kookoorookoo! kookoorookoo!" 228
 Baby cry 228
 Eight o'clock 228
 Bread and milk for breakfast 228
 There's snow on the fields 229
 Dead in the cold, a song-singing thrush 229
 I dug and dug amongst the snow 229
 A city plum is not a plum 229
 Your brother has a falcon 229
 Hear what the mournful linnets say 230
 A baby's cradle with no baby in it 230
 Hop-o'-my-thumb and little Jack Horner 230

Hope is like a harebell trembling from its birth 230
 O wind, why do you never rest 230
 Crying, my little one, footsore and weary 231
 Growing in the vale 231
 A linnet in a gilded cage 231
 Wrens and robins in the hedge 231
 My baby has a mottled fist 232
 Why did baby die 232
 If all were rain and never sun 232
 O wind, where have you been 232
 On the grassy banks 232
 Rushes in a watery place 233
 Minnie and Mattie 233
 Heartsease in my garden bed 234
 If I were a Queen 234
 What are heavy? sea-sand and sorrow 234
 There is but one May in the year 235
 The summer nights are short 235
 The days are clear 235
 Twist me a crown of wind-flowers 235
 Brown and furry 236
 A toadstool comes up in a night 236
 A pocket handkerchief to hem 236
 If a pig wore a wig 236
 Seldom 'can't' 237
 1 and 1 are 2 237
 How many seconds in a minute 238
 What will you give me for my pound 238
 January cold desolate 238
 What is pink? a rose is pink 239
 Mother shake the cherry-tree 239
 A pin has a head, but has no hair 240
 Hopping frog, hop here and be seen 240
 Where innocent bright-eyed daisies are 240
 The city mouse lives in a house 241
 What does the donkey bray about 241
 Three plum buns 241
 A motherless soft lambkin 241
 Dancing on the hill-tops 242
 When fishes set umbrellas up 242

The peacock has a score of eyes 242
 Pussy has a whiskered face 242
 The dog lies in his kennel 243
 If hope grew on a bush 243
 I planted a hand 243
 Under the ivy bush 243
 There is one that has a head without an eye 244
 If a mouse could fly 244
 Sing me a song 244
 The lily has an air 245
 Margaret has a milking-pail 245
 In the meadow – what in the meadow 245
 A frisky lamb 245
 Mix a pancake 246
 The wind has such a rainy sound 246
 Three little children 246
 Fly away, fly away over the sea 246
 Minnie bakes oaten cakes 246
 A white hen sitting 247
 Currants on a bush 247
 I have but one rose in the world 247
 Rosy maiden Winifred 247
 When the cows come home the milk is coming 248
 Roses blushing red and white 248
 "Ding a ding" 248
 A ring upon her finger 249
 "Ferry me across the water" 249
 When a mounting skylark sings 249
 Who has seen the wind 250
 The horses of the sea 250
 O sailor, come ashore 250
 A diamond or a coal 250
 An emerald is as green as grass 251
 Boats sail on the rivers 251
 The lily has a smooth stalk 251
 Hurt no living thing 251
 I caught a little ladybird 252
 All the bells were ringing 252
 Wee wee husband 252
 I have a little husband 253

The dear old woman in the lane	253
Swift and sure the swallow	253
"I dreamt I caught a little owl"	253
What does the bee do	254
I have a Poll parrot	254
A house of cards	254
The rose with such a bonny blush	254
The rose that blushes rosy red	255
Oh fair to see	255
Clever little Willie wee	255
The peach tree on the southern wall	255
A rose has thorns as well as honey	256
Is the moon tired? she looks so pale	256
If stars dropped out of heaven	256
"Goodbye in fear, goodbye in sorrow"	257
If the sun could tell us half	257
If the moon came from heaven	257
O Lady Moon, your horns point toward the east	257
What do the stars do	257
Motherless baby and babyless mother	258
Crimson curtains round my mother's bed	258
Baby lies so fast asleep	258
I know a baby, such a baby	258
Lullaby, oh lullaby	259
Lie a-bed	259

Verses (1893)

"OUT OF THE DEEP HAVE I CALLED UNTO THEE, O LORD"

- Alone Lord God, in Whom our trust and peace 389
 Seven vials hold Thy wrath: but what can hold 389
 "Where neither rust nor moth doth corrupt" 390
 "As the sparks fly upwards" 390
 Lord, make us all love all: that when we meet 391
 O Lord, I am ashamed to seek Thy Face 391
 It is not death, O Christ, to die for Thee 392
 Lord, grant us eyes to see and ears to hear 392
 "Cried out with Tears" 392
 O Lord, on Whom we gaze and dare not gaze 393
 "I will come and heal him" 393
 Ah, Lord, Lord, if my heart were right with Thine 394
 "The gold of that land is good" 394
 Weigh all my faults and follies righteously 395
 Lord, grant me grace to love Thee in my pain 395
 Lord, make me one with Thine own faithful ones 395
 "Light of Light" 396

CHRIST OUR ALL IN ALL

- "The ransomed of the Lord" 396
 Lord, we are rivers running to Thy sea 397
 "An exceeding bitter cry" 397

O Lord, when Thou didst call me, didst Thou know 398
 "Thou, God, seest me" 398
 Lord Jesus, who would think that I am Thine 399
 "The Name of Jesus" 399
 Lord God of Hosts, most Holy and most High 400
 Lord, what have I that I may offer Thee 400
 If I should say "my heart is in my home" 401
 Leaf from leaf Christ knows 401
 Lord, carry me. – Nay, but I grant thee strength 402
 Lord, I am here. – But, child, I look for thee 402
 New creatures; the Creator still the Same 403
 "King of kings and Lord of lords" 403
 Thy Name, O Christ, as incense streaming forth 404
 "The Good Shepherd" 404
 "Rejoice with Me" 404
 Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right 405
 Me and my gift: kind Lord, behold 405
 "He cannot deny Himself" 405
 "Slain from the foundation of the world" 406
 Lord Jesu, Thou art sweetness to my soul 406
 I, Lord, Thy foolish sinner low and small 407
 "Because He first loved us" 408
 Lord, hast Thou so loved us, and will not we 408
 As the dove which found no rest 409
 "Thou art Fairer than the children of men" 409
 "As the Apple Tree among the trees of the wood" 410
 None other Lamb, none other Name 410
 "Thy Friend and thy Father's Friend forget not" 410
 "Surely He hath borne our griefs" 411
 "They toil not, neither do they spin" 411
 Darkness and light are both alike to Thee 412
 "And now why tarriest thou?" 412
 Have I not striven, my God, and watched and prayed 413
 "God is our Hope and Strength" 413
 Day and night the Accuser makes no pause 414
 O mine enemy 414
 Lord, dost Thou look on me, and will not I 415
 "Peace I leave with you" 415
 O Christ our All in each, our All in all 415
 Because Thy Love hath sought me 416

Thy fainting spouse, yet still Thy spouse 416
 "Like as the hart desireth the water brooks" 416
 "That where I am, there ye may be also" 417
 "Judge not according to the appearance" 418
 My God, wilt Thou accept, and will not we 418
 A chill blank world. Yet over the utmost sea 418
 "The Chiefest among ten thousand" ["O Jesu, better than thy gifts"] 419

GIFTS AND GRACES

- Love loveth Thee, and wisdom loveth Thee 455
 Lord, give me love that I may love Thee much 456
 "As a king, . . . unto the King" 456
 O ye who love today 456
 Life that was born today 457
 "Perfect Love casteth out Fear" 457
 Hope is the counterpoise of fear 458
 "Subject to like Passions as we are" 458
 Experience bows a sweet contented face 459
 "Charity never Faileth" 459
 "The Greatest of these is Charity" 460
 All beneath the sun hasteth 460
 If thou be dead, forgive and thou shalt live 460
 "Let Patience have her perfect work" ['Can man rejoice who lives in hourly fear?'] 461
 Patience must dwell with Love, for Love and Sorrow 461
 "Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord" 461
 What is the beginning? Love. What the course? Love still 462
 Lord, make me pure 462
 Love, to be love, must walk Thy way 462
 Lord, I am feeble and of mean account 463
 Tune me, O Lord, into one harmony 463
 "They shall be as white as snow" 463
 Thy lilies drink the dew 464
 "When I was in trouble I called upon the Lord" 464
 Grant us such grace that we may work Thy Will 465
 "Who hath despised the day of small things?" 465
 "Do this, and he doeth it" 466
 "That no man take thy Crown" 466
 "Ye are come unto Mount Sion" 466
 "Sit down in the lowest room" 467
 "Lord, it is good for us to be here" 467
 Lord, grant us grace to rest upon Thy word 468

THE WORLD. SELF-DESTRUCTION

"A vain Shadow" 468
 "Lord, save us, we perish" 469
 What is this above thy head 469
 Babylon the Great 470
 "Standing afar off for the fear of her torment" 471
 "O Lucifer, Son of the Morning!" 471
 Alas, alas! for the self-destroyed 472
 As froth on the face of the deep 472
 "Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched" 472
 Toll, bell, toll. For hope is flying 473

DIVERS WORLDS. TIME AND ETERNITY

Earth has clear call of daily bells 473
 "Escape to the Mountain" 473
 I lift mine eyes to see: earth vanisheth 474
 "Yet a little while" ["Heaven is not far, tho' far the sky"] 474
 "Behold, it was very good" 474
 "Whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive" 475
 This near-at-hand land breeds pain by measure 475
 "Was Thy Wrath against the Sea?" 476
 "And there was no more Sea" 477
 Roses on a brier 477
 We are of those who tremble at Thy word 478
 "Awake, thou that sleepest" 478
 We know not when, we know not where 479
 "I will lift up mine eyes unto the Hills" ["When sick of life and all the world"] 479
 "Then whose shall those things be?" 480
 "His Banner over me was Love" 480
 Beloved, yield thy time to God, for He 480
 Time seems not short 481
 The half moon shows a face of plaintive sweetness 481
 "As the Doves to their windows" 482
 Oh knell of a passing time 482
 Time passeth away with its pleasure and pain 482

"The Earth shall tremble at the Look of Him" 483
 Time lengthening, in the lengthening seemeth long 483
 "All Flesh is Grass" 484
 Heaven's chimes are slow, but sure to strike at last 484
 "There remaineth therefore a Rest to the People of God" 485
 Parting after parting 485
 "They put their trust in Thee, and were not confounded" 486
 Short is time, and only time is bleak 486
 For Each 487
 For All 487

NEW JERUSALEM AND ITS CITIZENS

"The Holy City, New Jerusalem" 488
 When wickedness is broken as a tree 488
 Jerusalem of fire 489
 "She shall be brought unto the King" 489
 Who is this that cometh up not alone 490
 Who sits with the King in His Throne? Not a slave but a Bride 490
 Antipas 491
 "Beautiful for situation" 491
 Lord, by what inconceivable dim road 491
 "As cold waters to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country" 492
 Cast down but not destroyed, chastened not slain 493
 Lift up thine eyes to seek the invisible 493
 "Love is strong as Death" ["As flames that consume the mountains, as winds that coerce the sea"] 494
 "Let them rejoice in their beds" ["Crimson as the rubies, crimson as the roses"] 494
 Slain in their high places: fallen on rest 494
 "What hath God wrought!" 495
 "Before the Throne, and before the Lamb" 495
 "He shall go no more out" 496
 Yea, blessed and holy is he that hath part in the First
 Resurrection 496
 The joy of Saints, like incense turned to fire 497
 What are these lovely ones, yea, what are these? 497
 "The General Assembly and Church of the Firstborn" 497

- "Every one that is perfect shall be as his master" 498
 "As dying, and behold we live" 499
 "So great a cloud of Witnesses" 499
 Our Mothers, lovely women pitiful 500
 Safe where I cannot lie yet 500
 "Is it well with the child?" 500
 Dear Angels and dear disembodied Saints 501
 "To every seed his own body" 501
 "What good shall my life do me?" ["Have dead men long to wait?"] 502

SONGS FOR STRANGERS AND PILGRIMS

- "Her Seed; It shall bruise thy head" 503
 "Judge nothing before the time" 503
 How great is little man 503
 Man's life is but a working day 504
 If not with hope of life 504
 "The day is at hand" 505
 "Endure hardness" 505
 "Whither the Tribes go up, even the Tribes of the Lord" 506
 Where never tempest heaveth 506
 Marvel of marvels, if I myself shall behold 506
 "What is that to thee? follow thou me" 507
 "Worship God" 507
 "Afterward he repented, and went" 508
 "Are they not all Ministering Spirits?" 508
 Our life is long. Not so, wise Angels say 509
 Lord, what have I to offer? sickening fear 509
 Joy is but sorrow 510
 Can I know it? – Nay 510
 "When my heart is vexed I will complain" ["The fields are white to harvest, look and see"] 511
 "Praying always" 512
 "As thy days, so shall thy strength be" 512
 A heavy heart, if ever heart was heavy 513
 If love is not worth loving, then life is not worth living 513
 What is it Jesus saith unto the soul 514
 They lie at rest, our blessed dead 514

- "Ye that fear Him, both small and great" 515
 "Called to be Saints" 515
 The sinner's own fault? So it was 516
 Who cares for earthly bread tho' white? 516
 Laughing Life cries at the feast 516
