

Contents

List of contributors	ix
Acknowledgements	xi

1 Social media before domestic and European courts: fundamental rights and judicial dialogue	1
EVANGELIA PSYCHOGIOPOULOU AND FEDERICA CASAROSA

PART 1

The European perspective	23
---------------------------------	-----------

2 The CJEU as a fundamental rights adjudicator in social media cases	25
EVANGELIA PSYCHOGIOPOULOU

3 Social media jurisprudence: the European Court of Human Rights	48
LORNA WOODS

PART 2

The national perspective	71
---------------------------------	-----------

4 Social media before higher courts in Estonia: Delfi says it all	73
MEELI KAUR

5 A rights-based approach to social media under the midnight sun: social media before courts and other constitutional actors in Finland	89
MARTA MARONI, TUOMAS OJANEN AND EVELIINA IGNATIUS

6	Judicial dialogue à la Française : social media and fundamental rights in the French higher courts	105
	SARA MIGLIORINI AND CONSTANCE BONZÉ
7	Social media before German courts: balancing societal values, platform rules and individual rights	121
	MATTHIAS C. KETTEMANN, POLINA KULISH AND MARTHA ROUTEN
8	Social media before higher courts in Hungary: a focus on online comments	138
	ZSUZSA DETREKOI
9	Social media, fundamental rights and courts: an Irish perspective	152
	ELIZABETH FARRIES
10	Social media before higher courts in Italy: a thorough adaptation of existing rules and protection of constitutional rights online	170
	FEDERICA CASAROSA AND MARIA CONCETTA CAUSARANO
11	Social media before higher courts in Slovenia: judicial caution in imposing restrictions	188
	TANJA KERŠEVAN
12	Social media before higher courts in Spain: judicial dialogue on innovative and difficult cases and the resolution of disagreements between courts	205
	JOAN SOLANES MULLOR
13	Social media, the European Court of Human Rights and apex courts in the United Kingdom: contested competence at a time of constitutional change	222
	RACHAEL CRAUFURD SMITH
14	Courts, rights and powers in the digital age	242
	GIOVANNI DE GREGORIO AND ORESTE POLLICINO
	Index	257