

Contents

Acknowledgments	3
1 Why This Book.....	5
2 What We Are Facing	6
3 Part I Key Challenges, Issues and Solutions.....	9
3.1 Maybe I am too old-fashioned?	9
3.2 The ills of our society	11
3.3 What we could do	21
3.4 Why do we need so much?	27
3.5 Where is morality?	35
3.6 How can we enforce quality?.....	38
4 Part II Our Earth is Getting Sicker and Sicker, and Depleted.....	43
4.1 Consumer folly	43
4.2 The denial of global warming	44
4.3 China does not wait to act	49
4.4 China: examples of waste and pollution	54
4.5 Water in the world.....	55
4.6 China water, air and land – overview	56
4.7 Water in China – details	58
4.8 Water pollution in China.....	62
4.9 Pollution and waste around the world.....	69
4.10 The blame for pollution.....	71
4.11 Greenhouse gas emissions	73

4.12 China can't play Superman	75
4.13 GDP, Salaries, and PPP.....	76
4.14 The dramatic levels of pollution in China.....	78
4.14.1 Air pollution in Beijing and compared to other cities	81
4.14.2 Garbage, and lots of it.....	85
4.14.3 The recycling industry in China.....	96
4.14.4 E-waste	98
4.14.5 Contaminated soil	105
4.15 The quest for oil, gas, and other resources	106
4.16 The increasing risk of confrontation	107
4.17 Rare earths and other commodities.....	108
4.18 China's energy needs.....	114
4.19 Securing mining rights.....	121
4.20 The big SOE, but also others go abroad.....	123
4.21 Coal imports: a favorite is Australia	125
4.22 Iron ore and steel	127
4.23 China: missteps	129
4.24 Oil and gas: securing long-term supplies	133
4.25 The party is over?.....	134
4.26 Where is the oil market heading to?	137
4.27 China: natural gas.....	139
4.28 China: oil	141
4.29 Shale gas, oil, and fracking.....	145
4.30 The clash between mining and the environment	152
4.31 Is green energy not so green?.....	152
4.32 Food: demand	155
4.33 Food: waste.....	163
4.34 Cotton, jeans, lingerie, and other textiles	166

5	Part III The Parameters that Help or Obstruct	170
5.1	Wall Street: dubious financial instruments	170
5.2	The role of government	180
5.3	Why we need a (good) government	181
5.4	Defining the role of government: a look at China	184
5.5	Too much government and too expensive	187
5.6	Long-term infrastructure planning.....	188
5.7	Corruption	190
5.8	Taxation and income inequality	194
5.9	A fair job market.....	205
5.9.1	We need more jobs but executives are of little help	205
5.9.2	Deregulation to rebalance employers' and workers' rights, and duties.....	208
5.9.3	The income gap between top executives and the rest.....	213
5.9.4	Big companies: how many are successfully managed?	216
5.9.5	Retirement age.....	220
5.9.6	Low-paid manual labor	224
5.9.7	China: not a "socialist" labor environment.....	226
5.9.8	Outsourcing to developing countries	229
5.9.9	Immigration in EU and United States: fundamentally bad?	231
6	Part IV Day-to-day Examples, Trade and Business Issues.....	232
6.1	Consumerism versus quality: luxury items	232
6.2	Day-to-day examples	237
6.2.1	Waste in public bidding	238
6.2.2	Medical waste?	239
6.2.3	Foreign luxury goods need to improve quality and after sales.....	240
6.2.4	Foreign consumer brands in China: the case of IKEA	241

6.2.5	Energy-saving lamps	244
6.2.6	Waste in construction and energy consumption in buildings	244
6.2.7	Everyday poor quality	257
6.2.8	Better labeling and manuals	260
6.2.9	Electric bikes and cars: shifting pollution around	261
6.2.10	Moulinex Crystal Arôme: how to repair	264
6.2.11	Repairing the iMac screen	265
6.2.12	Waste in packaging	267
6.2.13	Using alternative materials and technologies	272
6.2.14	Batteries, more batteries	273
6.2.15	Toner cartridges: poor quality and service	277
6.2.16	Unwanted and useless presents.....	278
6.2.17	Stop the burning.....	280
6.2.18	The throwaway culture: give me your trash!	281
6.2.19	Still a lot to invent and to improve.....	284
6.3	International trade relations	291
6.4	The road ahead.....	295
6.4.1	China's policies to support a greener trend	295
6.4.2	Reshoring and relocating.....	299
6.4.3	Reform of China's industry	305
7	Final Conclusions and Remarks	311
8	About the Author.....	313
9	References, Disclaimer, Terms Used, Abbreviations	315
10	List of pictures	319
11	Index	323
12	Bibliography	333
13	End Notes.....	335