Contents

Abb	previations	viii
Ack	nowledgements	ix
Intr	oduction: What's this book about?	1
1	The two souls of organising: above and below	8
2	Understanding theory of change and its importance to effective organising	23
3	Without power we have no movement	52
4	Organising and mobilising: why understanding the difference matters to your campaign strategy	74
5	Equality as central organising practice	89
6	Leadership and the development of leaders	111
7	Developing a 'story of us'	135
8	Communication and the changing of dominant narratives	153
9	The art of negotiation	173
10	Disorganising: how opponents seek to disrupt	193
11	Rethinking and remaking organisations	224
Fina	al reflections	258
References		260
Index		269

and sometime are interested in a constant and another than the constant and the constant an deniment to be the second that the party of the second of

A STATE OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF THE

uninstant litter bonsie bogsell - ART