

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
List of Tables	xiii
Abbreviations	xv
I. Introduction	1
Chapter 1 The Power of Ideas and Ideas of Power: Chinese Think Tanks in Search of Prominence	3
II. Prominent Chinese Thinkers	57
Chapter 2 Hu Angang (Demographer and Economist): Championing Chinese Optimism and Exceptionalism	59
Chapter 3 Yu Keping (Political Scientist): Making Democracy Safe for China	95
Chapter 4 He Weifang (Legal Scholar): Fighting for a Constitutional China through Public Enlightenment and Legal Professionalism	115
Chapter 5 He Huaihong (Philosopher and Ethicist): Bringing Ethics Back into Chinese Discourse	163
III. The Dynamics and Constraints of Chinese Think Tank Development	193
Chapter 6 China's New Think Tanks: Where Officials, Entrepreneurs, and Scholars Interact	195
Chapter 7 An Imperative for China's New Think Tanks: Seeking Uniqueness and Diversity	233

Chapter 8	The Prospects for China’s Private Think Tanks	239
Chapter 9	Dissemination of Ideas and Credibility of Think Tank Research	243
Chapter 10	The Role of Think Tanks in Reconstructing Values in Present-Day China	255
Chapter 11	The Role of Think Tanks in Promoting Mutual Understanding and Preventing Misjudgment in Sino–U.S. Relations	263
Chapter 12	Chinese Think Tanks Go Global	269
IV. Toward a More Pluralistic Decision-Making Process		273
Chapter 13	Interest Group Politics in China: A Paradox of Hope and Fear	275
Chapter 14	Shaping China’s Foreign Policy: The Role of Foreign-Educated Returnees	287
V. Conclusion: Top-Level Design of Reform and China’s Political Future		315
Chapter 15	Will China’s “Top-Level Design of Reform” Prevent a “Bottom-Up Revolution”?	317
Chapter 16	Xi Jinping’s Reform Agenda: Promises and Risks	329
Index		333
About the Author		355