

Contents

List of Contributors	vii
Foreword	viii
David Oppenheim
1. Introduction	1
Kimberly R. Kelly
PART I APPROACHES USING NARRATIVE STORY COMPLETION METHODOLOGIES
2. Surveying the Use of Story Stems and Symbolic Play Across the Lifespan in Quantitative Research	15
Alison L. Bailey, Grace Ocular, and Kimberly R. Kelly
3. Story Completion Methods in Qualitative Research	42
Virginia Braun, Victoria Clarke, Hannah Frith, and     Naomi Moller
4. Narrative Story Stem Methods for Young Children in "Non-Western" Contexts: Are They Culturally Universal Enough?	66
Ming Wai Wan
PART II APPLICATIONS ACROSS THE LIFESPAN
5. Measures of Representations of Relationships: Links with Children's Socioemotional Understanding and Behavior	95
Deborah Laible, Chelsea Cortright, Afra Agalar, Melina     Westfall, and Anna Piecuch
6. Children's Internal Representations as Precursors of Behavioral Outcomes	111
Jesse L. Coe, Kassidy C. Colton, and Patrick T. Davies

7. Listen and Lead Story Stem Protocol in a Family Clinic Setting: Tapping Working Models of Family Relationships in 4- to 10-Year-Olds JoAnn L. Robinson and Jennifer Dealy	138
8. Exploring Narrative Imaginations of Physical Activity and Disability Through Story Completion Toni L. Williams	162
9. The Adult Attachment Projective Picture System: The Use of Stories to Measure Representations of Attachment in Adolescents and Adults Julie Wargo Aikins	183
10. "Tell Me a Story and Make Me a Picture": Incorporating Innovative Visual Methods in Story Completion Design Nikki Hayfield and Matthew Wood	202
11. Conclusion: Bringing Narrative Story Completion Methodologies to Their Full Potential Kimberly R. Kelly	221
References	227
Index	271