

Contents

|                                                                                                  |     |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Foreword .....                                                                                   | ix  |
| Charles E. Curran and Richard A. McCormick, S.J.                                          |     |
| Doctrinal Value and Interpretation of Papal Teaching .....                                       | 1   |
| John C. Ford, S.J. and Gerald Kelly, S.J.                                                 |     |
| Remarks on theAuthentic Teaching of theMagisterium of the Church .....                   | 14  |
| Bruno Schuller, S.J.                                                                      |     |
| Morality and Magisterium .....                                                                   | 34  |
| Daniel C. Maguire                                                                         |     |
| Ordinary Papal Magisteriumand Religious Assent .....                                         | 67  |
| Joseph A. Komonchak                                                                       |     |
| Morality and the Magisterium .....                                                               | 91  |
| Antonio di Marino, S.J.                                                                   |     |
| The Dispute Concerningthe Teaching Office of the Church .....                                | 113 |
| Karl Rahner, S.J.                                                                         |     |
| Open Questions in Dogma Considered by theInstitutional Church as Definitively Answered ..... | 129 |
| Karl Rahner, S.J.                                                                         |     |

|                                                                       |     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| The Ecclesiastical Magisteriumand Theology .....                  | 151 |
| Otto Semmelroth, S.J. and Karl Lehmann                         |     |
| Authority and theChristian Conscience .....                       | 171 |
| Christopher Butler, O.S.B.                                     |     |
| The Magisterium .....                                                 | 188 |
| John Francis Whealon                                           |     |
| Criteria for Dissent in the Church .....                              | 202 |
| Juan Arzube                                                    |     |
| The Magisterium and Theology .....                                    | 206 |
| Robert Coffy                                                   |     |
| The Church's Magisteriumin the Field of Morality .....            | 223 |
| Giovanni B. Guzzetti                                           |     |
| Doctrinal Authorityfor a Pilgrim Church .....                     | 247 |
| Avery Dulles, S.J.                                             |     |
| The Magisterium andthe Field of Theology .....                    | 271 |
| John R. Quinn                                                  |     |
| The Magisterium vs. the Theologians:Debunking Some Fictions ..... | 277 |
| Raymond E. Brown, S.S.                                         |     |
| A Semantic Historyof the Term "Magisterium" .....                 | 297 |
| Yves Congar, O.P.                                              |     |

|                                                                                              |     |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| A Brief History of theForms of the Magisterium andIts Relations with Scholars .....  | 314 |
| Yves Congar, O.P.                                                                     |     |
| The State of Moral Theology:A Critical Appraisal .....                                   | 332 |
| Thomas Dubay, S.M.                                                                    |     |
| Pluralism inCatholic Moral Theology .....                                                | 364 |
| Charles E. Curran                                                                     |     |
| Academic Freedom:The Catholic Universityand Catholic Theology .....                  | 388 |
| Charles E. Curran                                                                     |     |
| The Collaboration of theHierarchy and All Christiansin Formulating Moral Norms ..... | 408 |
| Philippe Delhay                                                                       |     |
| The Natural Lawand the Magisterium .....                                                 | 430 |
| John Boyle                                                                            |     |
| Reflections on the Literature .....                                                          | 461 |
| Richard A. McCormick, S.J.                                                            |     |
| Biographical Notes .....                                                                     | 511 |