

Contents

List of Maps xi

Acknowledgments xiii

A Note on Names and Places xvii

Introduction

Historical Frames: Political and Military Developments 2

Sources in Scholarly Context: The Middle Ages, the Crusades, and the Problem of “Lateness” 14

Framing the Sources: Selection, Structure, and Significance 21

Conclusion: Belgrade as a Fifteenth-Century Event 28

Part One: Preparations for Crusade, 1453–1456

1. Pope Nicholas V, Etsi Ecclesia Christi 39

2. Aeneas Silvius Piccolomini, Constantinopolitana Clades 46

3. Correspondence of 1455–1456 51

3.1. The City of Ragusa to John Hunyadi 51

3.2. John of Capistrano to Pope Callixtus III 53

3.3. John of Capistrano to Pope Callixtus III 57

3.4. Juan Carvajal to John of Capistrano 58

3.5. John of Capistrano to Juan Carvajal 60

- 3.6. Juan Carvajal to John of Capistrano 62
- 3.7. Juan Carvajal to John of Capistrano 64
- 3.8. Juan Carvajal to John of Capistrano 65
- 3.9. John Hunyadi to Francis Oddi, Bishop of Assisi 65
- 3.10. John of Capistrano to Francis Oddi, Bishop of Assisi 66
- 4. Liturgy for Taking the Cross 68
- 5. A Pope's Call to Prayer 71
 - 5.1. Callixtus III, Cum his superioribus 72
 - 5.2. Bulla Turcorum / "Türkenbulle" 80
- 6. Pope Callixtus III, Omnipotentis dei misericordia 82

Part Two: The Earliest Accounts

- 7. John of Capistrano to Pope Callixtus III 87
- 8. John of Capistrano to Pope Callixtus III 88
- 9. John Hunyadi to Denis Szécsi, Archbishop of Esztergom 91
- 10. John Hunyadi to Ladislaus Garai, Palatine of Hungary 91
- 11. John Hunyadi to King Ladislaus V 93
- 12. John of Tagliacozzo to a Fellow Franciscan 95
- 13. John of Capistrano to Pope Callixtus III 104

Part Three: News and Propaganda

- 14. Ambassador of the Bishop of Šibenik to Pope Callixtus III 109
- 15. Cardinal Juan Carvajal to Francesco Sforza 112
- 16. Letters of John Goldener 113
 - 16.1. John Goldener to Franz Schlick 114
 - 16.2. John Goldener to Matthew Schlick 116
- 17. Ladislaus V to Duke Francesco Sforza of Milan 118
- 18. The City of Nuremberg to the City of Weissenburg 121
- 19. Pope Callixtus III to Francesco Sforza, Duke of Milan 122
- 20. Letters of Bernard of Kraiburg 125
 - 20.1. Bernard of Kraiburg to Sigismund, Archbishop of Salzburg 126
 - 20.2. Bernard of Kraiburg to Henry Rüger of Pegnitz 128
- 21. Pope Callixtus III, Letter to Juan Soler 130
- 22. Anonymous (Pseudo-John of Capistrano), to All Christians 133
- 23. Anonymous, Letter to Henry of Eckenfelt 137

24. Liturgical Commemorations of Belgrade 142
 24.1. Pope Callixtus III, Inter divinae dispensationis 142
 24.2. John Burchard, Liber notarum 144

Part Four: John of Tagliacozzo's Story of the Victory of Belgrade

25. John of Tagliacozzo, The Story of the Victory of Belgrade 147

Part Five: Memoir and Chronicle

26. Thomas Ebendorfer, Chronicle of Austria 217
27. Laonikos Chalkokondyles, The Histories 222
28. Michael Kritopoulos (Kritoboulos), History of Mehmed the Conqueror 228
29. Jacopo Promontorio, Recollecta 232
30. Âşıkpaşazade, Memories and Chronicles of the House of Osman 235
31. John Thurocz, Chronicle of the Hungarians 237
32. Tursun Beg, History of the Conqueror 249
33. The Oxford Anonymous Chronicle 256
34. Konstantin Mihailović, Memoirs 259

Cast of Characters 269

General Timeline 275

Timeline of the Crusade of 1456 279

Maps 281

Index 285