

CONTENTS

CHAPTER I THE GENERAL PROBLEM AND ITS PRESENT CONDITIONS

	PAGE
1 Sanctions are inevitable .	2
2 The burden of Sanctions in Covenant and Protocol	5
3 Military sanctions the chief difficulty .	12
4 The case of the British Empire .	16
5 The problem stated .	22
6 The assumptions of our inquiry	26

CHAPTER II PRACTICAL APPLICATIONS

7. Military Sanctions and Regional Pacts .	27
8. The German ' five-power ' Pact	29
9 Regional Pacts and Disarmament .	33
10 Economic Sanctions	34
11 The minimum demands of a leagued world	35
12-13 Economic action should not require military aid	37
✓14 The nature of the Economic Sanction .	39
15 The special case of an aggressor's neighbours	43
✓16 Members should not be obliged to take punitive economic measures .	44
17 Especially against individuals	47
18 The vague duty of ' economic assistance '	49
19 How economic assistance might be pledged	50
20. A permanent Conference on sanctions	53
21 Summary of suggestions and draft articles	54

CHAPTER III SANCTIONS AND THE 'STATUS QUO'

	PAGE
1 'Status quo' as an argument of confusion	59
2. Law always brings relative stability	60
3 Violence must end before Justice can begin .	61
4 The League, besides checking violence, may suggest more just international arrangements. It cannot assume power to change unsatisfactory conditions	61
5 It is true that changes might be impeded by international guarantees	66
6 As countries refusing to join the League could not claim its support against attack, in the same way countries accepting only in part the methods of the League should receive only a proportionate guarantee of security .	68
7 The strict association of sanctions with arbitration would avoid the 'stereotyping' of the status quo	71
8 It would also, more than anything else, relieve the burden of sanctions	72

CHAPTER IV THE PROBLEM OF SANCTIONS AND AMERICAN POLICY

1 Lack of American co-operation our great obstacle	75
2 American policy and the League's needs can be reconciled .	77
3 Juridical test of aggression may induce fuller American co-operation	81
4 Contribution to peace without 'entanglements'	82
5 Co-operation elastic and gradual	84
Note —Recent developments in America	85