

Contents

About the Editors	xiii
About the Contributors	xiv
Introduction	1
PART I
Conceptualizing Trauma	11
1 A Conceptualization of Trauma for Social Work Education Jane E. Sanders and Stephanie L. Baird	13
2 Navigating Trauma: A Prerequisite for Social Work Excellence Dana M. Hubbard	35
3 Understanding the Impact of Trauma on the Human Brain, Relationships, and Learning Margriet de Zeeuw Wright	49
4 An Ecological Conceptualization and Healing-Centered Approach to Trauma: Implications for Social Work Education Evan M. Harris and Joseph L. Feldman	74
5 Integrating a Trauma-Informed Perspective in the Generalist/Foundation Practice Curriculum Carolyn Knight	95
6 Fostering Trauma-Informed Relationships in Education: Recognition, Respect, and Re-membering Louise Morley and Frances Crawford	116
7 Trauma-Informed Approaches in Embodied Social Work Arielle Dylan, Lea Tufford, and Ellen Katz	130

PART II

Trauma and the Social Work Classroom

139

- 8 Special Considerations for Trauma-informed Online Teaching:
Implications for Educators 141
Lia Marshall and Matthea Marquart
- 9 Creating Safety and Community in the Classroom: Equipping a New Generation of Social Workers 156
*Jane Middleton-Moz, Faye Mishna, Charmaine Williams,
Suzy Goodleaf, Joanna Vautour, and Germaine Elliott*
- 10 An Integrated Trauma-Informed and Anti-oppressive Framework Across
Social Work Courses: Curriculum and Classroom Support 167
Johanna Creswell Báez, Shannon K. Johnson, Stephanie Gangemi, Malikah Marrus, Monica Furey, and Catherine Simmons
- 11 Spirituality, Trauma, and Healing-Centered Care: Pedagogy and Practice 181
Heather Boynton and Indrani Margolin
- 12 Promoting Trauma-Informed Practice in Social Work Education
Through an Experiential Learning Program 208
Rita Dhungel and Kathy Kim
- 13 Trauma-Informed Teaching During Triggering Times: COVID-19,
Racial Violence, and Revisiting the Importance of Naming Trauma 224
Lisa Henshaw
- 14 Trauma-Informed Pedagogy and Online Social Work Education and Field Instruction 248
Heather Boynton, Colleen McMillan, Alice Schmidt Hanbidge, Beth Archer-Kuhn and Judy Hughes
- 15 Trauma-Informed Simulation-Based Learning: Considerations for Students and Standardized Clients 274
Lea Tufford, Sarah Tarshis, and Arielle Dylan

PART III

Trauma and the Social Work Curriculum

285

- 16 Trauma-Informed Teaching of Sensitive Subjects: Strategies for Instructors 287
Jessica D. Cless and Briana S. Nelson Goff Goff

- 17 Social Work Education Curriculum Design: Applying a Feminist-Informed Trauma Model 302
Susan Hillock
- 18 Fostering Critical, Reflective, Trauma-Informed Social Work Education: A Polyvagal-Informed Approach to Pedagogy 322
Sarah Pearson
- 19 Black and Indigenous Trauma and Ethics of Care in Neoliberal Registration 331
Dionisio Nyaga and Rose E. Cameron

PART IVTrauma and Social Work Field Education 345

- 20 Trauma and Social Work Field Education: Supporting Students, Instructors, and Our Team 347
Angela Judge-Stasiak, Julie Mann-Johnson, Stephanie Grant, Carrie Blaug, Serena Visser, Krista Osborne, Amy Fulton, and Leeann Hilsen
- 21 Trauma and Field Education 364
June Kirkland-Smith
- 22 Preparation, Integration, and Practice: A Field Placement Model for Creating Resiliency and Longevity in the Social Workers of Tomorrow 381
Suvi Teigen

PART VPromoting Trauma-Informed Care Through Educational Policy, Community Involvement, and Research 397

- 23 Structural Violence, Trauma, and the Pursuit of Happiness 399
Hugh Shewell
- 24 Homelessness Research and Vicarious Traumatization: Preparing Students for Social Work Research and Practice with Diverse Populations 410
Jordan Goodwin
- 25 Creating a Trauma-Informed School of Social Work: Curriculum, Policies and Practices, and University–Community Partnerships 426
Susan A. Green, Samantha P. Koury, Denise J. Krause, Diane E. Elze, Kathryn McClain-Meeder and Joshua C. Hine
- 26 Universal Design and Trauma-Informed Teaching: Integration, Inclusion, and Social Justice 446
Britt E. Rhodes

PART VI

Trauma-Support Services for Social Work Students, Staff, and Educators 455

- 27 Systemic Self-Care 457
Lori Gauthier
- 28 “Let’s Get Physical”: Integrating Trauma-Informed Physical Activity Into Social Work Education 470
Tasnim Nathoo and Danya Rogen
- 29 Relational Impacts: Trauma-Related Risk, Protection, Social Work Practice, and Education 485
Denise Michelle Brend and Ginny Sprang
- 30 Why Students Enter Social Work: Embracing the “Wounded Healer” 507
Debashis Dutta

PART VII

Concluding Thoughts and Future Directions 525

- 31 Summary and Implications 527
Arielle Dylan and Lea Tufford

- Index 531*