

CONTENTS

Preface	ix
Introduction	1
1 The importance of being a hero	8
2 Mandrup Pedersen Schønnebøl: The judge who ended witch-burning	30
3 James Edwin Horton: The Scottsboro judge	41
4 Lothar Kreyssig: The judge with a conscience	48
5 The Norwegian Supreme Court: Against German bayonets	56
6 Hans Langeland: The judge who hailed the king	65
7 Hans Georg Calmeyer: Hitler's disobedient bureaucrat	73
8 Andreas Cervin: A hero of the sea	82
9 Egil Reichborn-Kjennerud: The villain who was a hero	91

10	Herbert Jay Stern: An American in Berlin	100
11	Aharon Barak: A hero on the battlefield	110
12	Iris Yassmin Barrios: The judge who tries military dictators	121
13	Małgorzata Gersdorf: The battle over the courts in Poland	130
14	An aunt from Gilead: A legal hero from the world of fiction	139
15	Judging against the law?	147
16	The virtuous judge?	165
	Index	189