

Contents

List of contributors	ix
1 Conceptualising accountability of the judiciary PIOTR MIKULI	1
PART I
Theoretical insights	9
2 Accountability of the judiciary as a constitutional value RYSZARD PIOTROWSKI	11
3 Constitutional identity as an ‘actor’ of judicial accountability NÓRA BÁN-FORGÁCS	34
PART II
Standards	67
4 EU standards regarding individual accountability of judges NATALIE FOX	69
5 Challenges of disciplinary liability of judges and public prosecutors MARINA MATIĆ BOŠKOVIĆ AND JELENA KOSTIĆ	86
6 In search of standards for judicial immunity PIOTR MIKULI	101

PART III

Quis custodiet ipsos custodes? 123

- 7 Making constitutional judges accountable for deliberating: Three hypotheses and possible research 125

CRISTÓBAL CAVIEDES

- 8 How to hold constitution's defenders accountable? Reflections on the specificity of the constitutional judges' accountability 146

RADOSŁAW PUCHTA

PART IV

Samples of accountability mechanisms 167

- 9 Autonomy and boundedness as internal values in the practice of the Court of Justice of the European Union 169

ALEXANDER LAZOVIĆ

- 10 Vetting as a judicial integrity enhancement tool 186

ARNISA TEPELIJA AND TEODORA MILJOJKOVIĆ

- 11 The conundrum of judicial accountability and independence in military courts from a comparative perspective 207

ARIANNA VEDASCHI AND MICOL FERRARIO

- 12 Judicial financial autonomy: how performance-based budgeting can impact on independence and accountability of judges 226

GRZEGORZ KUCA AND ELŻBIETA GUDOWSKA-NATANEK

- Index 241*