

Contents

List of contributors	viii
1 Trust in public governance: scoping the field Dominika Latusek, Joseph A. Hamm, Sophie Op de Beeck, John Ropp, Frédérique Six, Esther van Zimmeren and Koen Verhoest	1
PART I UNDERSTANDING KEY CONCEPTS AND PROCESSES OF TRUST AND DISTRUST
2 Vulnerability: the active ingredient of trust in public governance Joseph A. Hamm and Francine Banner	25
3 Trust and distrust in institutions Dominika Latusek and Karen S. Cook	40
4 Institutional contradictions: a persistent threat to trust in public sector organisations Chris P. Long and Sim B. Sitkin	60
5 Trust matters: the governance of private and public services organisations' external relationships Reinhard Bachmann	76
6 Learning to trust: the implications of sorting and segregating students in schools and school systems Melanie Ehren	85
7 Repairing trust in public sector agencies Nicole Gillespie and Niamh Daly	98
8 Trust and transparency in algorithmic governance: a multi-level framework Esther Nieuwenhuizen	116
9 Researching trust in public governance: methodological considerations and approaches Emily A. Morrison and Mark N.K. Saunders	136
PART II TRUST IN TRIAS POLITICA IN A MULTILEVEL GOVERNANCE PERSPECTIVE
10 Trust in political and legislative actors and systems Viktor Valgarðsson	153

11	Trust in courts and judicial systems: a conceptual and methodological review Monika Glavina and Esther van Zimmeren	167
12	Citizens' trust in public administration: an Israeli perspective on the spirits of trust in public service Eran Vigoda-Gadot, Shlomo Mizrahi and Nissim Cohen	189
13	Political trust: a multilevel governance perspective Jarle Trondal and Dominika Proszowska	204
14	Trust dynamics in federal systems Patricia Popelier and Peter Bursens	217
PART III MULTIDISCIPLINARY PERSPECTIVES ON CITIZEN–GOVERNMENT RELATIONSHIPS
15	Trust norms as hope for a trustworthy government Valerie Braithwaite	233
16	Exploring power, vulnerability and trust in public governance through the lens of feminist intersectionality Kathleen M. Darcy, Elizabeth Meier, Amanda Isabel Osuna, Jenna A. Van Fossen, John Ropp and Joseph A. Hamm	258
17	Trust, identity and place-based environmental governance Marc J. Stern and Dara M. Wald	274
18	Corruption and political trust: how the effect of societal cleavages on trust depend on the corruption context Monika Bauhr and Nicholas Charron	292
19	Participatory engagement: three potential pathways for impacting public trust in institutions Lisa M. PytlikZillig and Mariska Kappmeier	308
20	Competence in crisis: what happens after the rally-round-the-flag? Daniel Devine, Will Jennings, Gerry Stoker and Jennifer Gaskell	331
21	Public officials' trust in citizens: a review of the literature Koen Migchelbrink and Steven Van de Walle	344
PART IV TRUST BETWEEN AND WITHIN PUBLIC ORGANISATIONS
22	Trust and regulation Koen Verhoest, Bastiaan Redert, Martino Maggetti, David Levi-Faur and Jacint Jordana	360

23	Trust in public networks and public–private partnerships: achieving conditions for effectiveness and innovation? Erik Hans Klijn and Rianne Warsen	381
24	Trust and government contracting Meeyoung Lamothe, Scott Lamothe and Alperen Zararsiz	395
25	Trust, control and motivation in public organisations Tina Øllgaard Bentzen, Frédérique Six and Sophie Op de Beeck	408
26	Trust and public sector work: how public service motivation helps explain multi-level trust relations Charis Rice, Rosalind Searle and Ann-Marie Nienaber	425
	Index	440