

CONTENTS

Editor's Preface	ix
Preface	xi
Note on References	xiii
Abbreviations	xv
 Introduction
A. Recent Interpretation of Romans	2
1. History as Paradigm	2
2. New Approaches to the Interpretation of Romans	3
3. The Approach Taken by This Commentary	8
B. Why Paul Wrote to Rome	8
1. The Historical Circumstances	8
a) Paul's Own Situation	8
b) The Christians in Rome	10
2. Romans as a Letter and Instrument of Persuasion	13
a) Letter Form	13
b) Instrument of Persuasion	16
3. Why Paul Wrote to Rome: Conclusion	18
C. Paul's Rhetorical Task	19
1. "Knowledge" Paul Has in Common with the Christians of Rome	20
a) The Heritage from Judaism	20
b) The Shared Christian Pattern of Belief	21
2. "Knowledge" More Particularly Distinctive of Paul	22
D. The Structure of the Letter	26
Outline of the Structure of the Letter	27
E. Two Further Issues	29
1. The Integrity of the Letter	29
2. Paul and Israel	29

General Bibliography	31
A. The Socio-Rhetorical Approach	31
B. Christianity in Rome	32
C. Occasion and Purpose of Romans	33
D. Commentaries	33
E. General	34

Translation, Interpretation, Notes

INTRODUCTION (1:1-17)	37
a) Address and Greeting (1:1-7)	37
b) Thanksgiving and Theme (1:8-17)	47
BODY OF THE LETTER (1:18-15:13)	62
I. THE INCLUSIVE SAVING POWER OF THE GOSPEL (1:18-11:36)	62
A. The Inclusion of the Gentiles on the Basis of Righteousness by Faith (1:18-4:25)	62
i. No Other Righteousness (1:18-3:20)	63
a) The Revelation of God's Wrath Against the Gentile World (1:18-32)	63
b) Those Who "judge" Are Not Immune from the Wrath (2:1-11)	79
c) Possession of the Law Makes No Difference (2:12-29)	87
1. The Law and the Gentiles (2:12-16)	87
2. The Law and the Jews (2:17-24)	95
3. The "Real Jew" (2:25-29)	101
d) God's Faithfulness to Israel Stands (3:1-8)	106
e) Scripture's Witness to Universal Lack of Righteousness (3:9-20)	115
ii. The "Righteousness of God" Now Available to All Believers (3:21-26)	122
iii. Faith, the Sole Basis Upon Which the One God Justifies All (3:27-31)	135
iv. Scripture's Witness to Righteousness by Faith (4:1-25)	141
a) Abraham, Justified on the Basis of Faith (4:1-12)	144
b) Abraham, Paradigm Receiver of the Promise on the Basis of Faith (4:13-25)	151
B. The Sure Hope of Salvation Springing from Righteousness by Faith (5:1-8:39)	162
i. The Hope That Springs from God's Love (5:1-11)	164

ii. The Legacy of Christ (Righteousness and Life) Outweighs the Legacy of Adam (Sin and Death) (5:12-21)	173
iii. The Freedom to Live Out the Righteousness of God (6:1-8:13)*	187
a) Dead to Sin/Alive to God in Christ (6:1-14)	188
b) The New Obedience (6:15-23)	199
c) Free in Christ from the Law (7:1-6)	208
d) The Fatal Encounter with the Law (7:7-13)	216
e) Life Under the Law—Ethical “Impossibility” (7:14-25)	224
f) Life in the Spirit—Ethical “Possibility” (8:1-13)	234
iv. Hope of Glory for God’s Children (8:14-30)	247
a) Children and Heirs of God (8:14-17)	247
b) The “Groaning” of Creation (8:18-22)	254
c) The “Groaning” of “Ourselves” (8:23-25)	262
d) The “Groaning” of the Spirit (8:26-28) and God’s Eternal Plan (8:29-30)	266
v. The Coming Victory of God’s Love (8:31-39)	274
 C. The Inclusion of Israel (9:1-11:36)	281
i. The Bitter Problem of Israel’s Present Unbelief (9:1-5)	284
ii. The Elective Pattern of God’s Working (9:6-29)	289
a) The Elective Pattern Shown in the Patriarchs (9:6-13)	291
b) The Elective Pattern Shown in Moses and Pharaoh (9:14-18)	295
c) God’s Freedom Defended Against Human Complaint (9:19-21)	296
d) The Elective Pattern Shown in the Composition of the Believing Community (9:22-29)	300
iii. Israel’s Present Rejection of the Gospel (9:30-10:21)	307
a) “Stumbling” Before the Righteousness of God (9:30-10:4)	308
b) Scripture’s Witness to Righteousness by Faith (10:5-13)	316
c) Israel Has Heard but Not Responded to the Gospel (10:14-21)	323
iv. Israel’s Ultimate Inclusion in the Community of Salvation (11:1-32)	328
a) God Has Not Rejected Israel—the “Remnant” (11:1-10)	329
b) Israel’s “Stumbling” Has a Saving Purpose (11:11-24)	336
c) The “Mystery”: the Final Salvation of “All Israel” (11:25-32)	348
v. Hymn to God’s Inscrutable Wisdom (11:33-36)	358
 II. SUMMONS TO LIVE ACCORDING TO THE GOSPEL (12:1-15:13)	361 Ethics
i. Christian Life as “Rational Worship” (12:1-2)	362

* “The ethical sequence” or “ethical sequence”

ii. The Basic Demands of Christian Living (12:3–13:14)	367
a) A Due Assessment of One's Personal Gift (12:3-8)	367
b) Love in Action Within the Community (12:9-16)	374
c) Love in Action Outside the Community (12:17-21)	380
d) Duties Towards Civil Authorities (13:1-7)	384
e) The Sole Debt of Love (13:8-10)	393
f) "Knowing the Time" (13:11-14)	397
iii. Tolerance in Contentious Areas of Community Life (14:1–15:13)	403
a) The Tolerance Incumbent upon All (14:1-12)	407
b) The Tolerance Asked Particularly of the "Strong" (14:13-23)	414
c) The Example of Christ as Grounds for Tolerance (15:1-6)	423
d) Christ's "Acceptance" as Model for Community Acceptance (15:7-13)	428
CONCLUSION OF THE LETTER (15:14–16:24[27])	433
i. Paul's Ministry of the Gospel to the Gentiles (15:14-33)	433
a) Paul's Apostolic Mission Until Now (15:14-21)	434
b) Paul's Plans for the Future and Concluding "Grace" I (15:22-33)	439
ii. Commendation and Greetings (16:1-27)	446
a) Commendation of Phoebe (16:1-2)	447
b) Greetings I (16:3-16)	449
c) A Warning (16:17-20)	455
d) Greetings II and Concluding "Grace" II (16:21-24)	459
e) (Inauthentic) Concluding Doxology (16:25-27)	461

Scripture Index	465
Index of Ancient Writings	487
Author Index	494
Subject Index	499