

Contents

List of maps and plans	page vii
Preface	ix
List of sources	xi
List of abbreviations	xvii
Introduction	1
Part One The foundations of Christian Latin	5
Section 1: Education	7
Section 2: Liturgy and Divine Office	18
Section 3: The Bible	29
Section 4: The Church Fathers	43
Section 5: The new Christian genres	57
Part Two Early Medieval Latin	67
Section 6: Hiberno-Latin	70
Section 7: Anglo-Latin	93
Section 8: Continental Latin	116
Section 9: The Carolingian Renaissance	133
Section 10: The Ottonian Renaissance	151
Part Three From the end of the Ottonian Renaissance (1002) to the Concordat of Worms (1122)	173
Section 11: The Norman Conquest	175
Section 12: The 'investiture contest'	192
Section 13: The First Crusade	218
Section 14: Philosophy and theology	230
Section 15: Poetry	243

Part Four The twelfth-century Renaissance	253
Section 16: The schools and the scholastic method	255
Section 17: The religious life	268
Section 18: Theology and philosophy	296
Section 19: Historical writing	310
Section 20: Court literature	332
Grammar	362
Orthography	373
Note on vocabulary	376
Vocabulary	378