

Contents

Acknowledgements	xi
Introduction	1
PART 1
Three Arabic-Speaking Christian Theologians and Their Writings on the Doctrine of the Trinity (c. 800–850)
1 Historical and Intellectual Environment	11
Christians in the Islamic Empire: Historical Social and Linguistic Contexts	11
Historical Context	11
Social Context	12
Linguistic Environment	17
Christian Theologising on the Trinity	21
Philoxenus of Mabbug (d. 523)	24
John of Damascus (c. 675–c. 754)	26
Muslim Theologising on the Nature and Unity of God	30
Abū al Hudhayl (c. 750–c. 840)	33
Ibn Kullāb (d.c. 855)	35
Nature of kalām	37
Muslim Criticisms of the Doctrine of the Trinity	40
2 Theodore Abū Qurra (c. 750–c. 830)	47
Background	47
Biography	47
Historical Context	48
Intellectual Context	51
Works Relating to the Trinity	53
Setting the Context	55
Relationship between Faith and Reason	55
Christianity as the True Religion	56
Explanation of the Trinity	58
Scriptural Proofs	59
Rational Analogies	61
Attributes of God	64

Response to Muslim Questions	68
Theodore Abū Qurra's Understanding of the Nature of God	74
3 Abū Rā'īṭa Al-Takrītī (c. 755–c. 835)	77
Background	77
Biography	77
Historical Context	78
Intellectual Context	79
Works Relating to the Trinity	80
Setting the Context	83
Agreement that God is One	83
Explanation of the Trinity	86
Types of Oneness	86
Absolute vs. Relative Names	88
Response to Muslim Questions	97
Abū Rā'īṭa's Understanding of the Nature of God	99
4 'Ammār al-Baṣrī (d.c. 840)	105
Background	105
Biography	105
Historical Context	105
Intellectual Context	107
Works Relating to the Trinity	109
Setting the Context	112
What can be Known about God	112
Criticism of the Teaching that God has no 'Word' or 'Life'	115
God's Relationship to His Word and Life	118
Explanation of the Trinity	120
Four 'Categories'	120
'One and Three' is Not a Numerical Issue	123
Al-uqnūm and the Relationship Between Substance and
Hypostases	124
Biblical Proofs	128
Response to Muslim Questions	131
'Ammār's Understanding of the Nature of God	136

PART 2

The Role and Function of Christian Explanations of the Trinity in Arabic

5 The Tools of Christian Arabic Apologetic and Polemic	143
Analogy and Metaphor	143
Scriptural Proofs	154
Terminology	161
Rational and Logical Proofs	174
'The Unity of Species'	174
'A Question for the Muslims'	179
'The Headship of God'	179
'Three is the Perfect Number'	180
The "Attribute-Apology"	181
6 Christian Theologians Employing Muslim Theology	187
Priorities, Emphases and Engagement with Islamic Thought	187
Abū Qurra	187
Abū Rā'īta	193
'Ammār al-Baṣrī	198
The Role of Christian Arabic Works	203
Audience and Purpose	203
The Place of Early Christian Theology in Arabic	205
Conclusion	212
Bibliography	217
Bible of Qur'an Citations	228
Index of People and Places	229
Subject Index	233