

Sarah M. Whiting Envious Assemblies	16
Chantal Mouffe Democracy as Agonistic Pluralism	20
Markus Miessen Proximities	24
Zahra Ali Baba Diwaniya: A Space for Reinstitution	76
Joseph Grima, Markus Miessen Diwaniya: An Architectural Space of Political Exchange	86
Kenny Cupers, Markus Miessen, Patricia Reed Architectural Space as Agent: Notes Regarding the 2011 Winter School Middle East, Kuwait	126
Mirjam Zadoff The Politics of Spectacle and Display: Some Thoughts on Agonistic Assemblies 1922/2022	144
Claudia Chwalisz, Amelie Klein, Vera Sacchetti A Tree, a Roof, a Tent: Spatial Models for a New Democratic Paradigm	150
Florian Malzacher, Markus Miessen, David Mulder van der Vegt Designing Politics: Architectures of Deliberation and Decision-Making	168
Gustav Kjær Vad Nielsen Revisiting Self-Governance: On Designing a Council of Five Hundred	196
Charlotte Malterre-Barthes, Markus Miessen, Anne Davidian New Sites for Assembly	206

Diane E. Davis Making Room for Conflict: Agonistic Urbanism and the Struggle for a More Inclusive City	216
Jesko Fezer The Community Problem in Design	228
Ole Bouman, Giancarlo De Carlo, Roemer van Toorn Architecture Is Too Important to Leave to the Architects	242
Erhard Eppler, Markus Miessen Initiative Citoyenne	254
Rahel Süß How the Politics of Provocation Is Shaping Democratic Futures	272
Dennis Pohl When European Parliament Goes on Air: Television, Architecture, and the European Public	282
Pelin Tan On Horizontal Alliances— Scales of Threshold Infrastructures	298
Francelle Cane, Markus Miessen, César Reyes Nájera, Rahel Süß Democratic Practices	308
Nikolaj Schultz Three Points to Remember for the Green Parties	330
Author Biographies	340
Acknowledgments	354