

Contents

About the authors	vii	Part 2 Writing and publication	19
Acknowledgements	ix	5 Why write?	20
Introduction	xi	Workshop 3: How do they do it?	26
Part 1 The road to completion	1	6 Writing for others	27
1 The shape of the PhD project	2	Workshop 4: Explaining your research	29
2 Managing the PhD	5	7 Writing to publish	31
Workshop 1: The road to completion	6	Part 3 Writing your thesis	39
3 Looking ahead to completion	15	8 The examiner and the exam document	40
Workshop 2: Questions everyone wants to know about your research	16	9 Planning your chapters	46
4 Making a contribution	17	10 Writing for the examiners	55
		11 The introduction and conclusion	59
		Workshop 5: The elements of your conclusion	64
		12 Become an editor!	65
		13 Final stages	67

Part 4 Talking and presenting	71
14 Talking about your research	72
15 Conferences	75
16 Presenting a conference paper	78
17 Presenting a poster	81
Part 5 The oral examination: the viva	85
18 The examiner and the examiners' report	87
19 Preparing for the viva	90
20 The viva performance	96
21 Viva outcomes	101
Part 6 Life after your PhD	103
22 What comes after ...	104
References	109
Useful sources	111
Index	113