

Contents

Foreword v

Preface vii

Table of Statutes xiii

Table of Statutory Instruments xxvii

Table of European and International Materials xliii

Table of Cases li

Chapter 1 Shared deliberations 1

Introduction 1

Shared deliberations 3

Family and immigration legal systems: an outline 6

Child migrants: their rights and welfare 15

Separate and distinct determinations 41

Chapter 2 British citizenship: children and families 61

Introduction 62

The attributes and rights associated with nationality/citizenship 63

Defining ‘parents’ and families in nationality law 83

British citizenship: the acquisition rules 94

Denial, deprivation and loss of citizenship 119

Fees, charges and passports 123

Chapter 3 Children and families: their entry and stay 135

The rules and visa procedures 136

Family Immigration Rules 162

Partners and parents: their entry, stay and settlement 169

Bereaved and victim partners 205

Children: their entry, stay and settlement in the UK 215

Appeals and appeal procedures 233

Chapter 4 Children and families: EEA free movement and post-Brexit immigration rules 245

Introduction 246

Sources of free movement law 248

Free movement rights prior to 31 December 2020	251
EEA residence documents	282
EEA family permits	283
The EU Settlement Scheme	286
Deportation of EEA nationals and their family members	307
Rights of appeal	311

Chapter 5 Separated families: refusal of entry, removal and deportation 317

Introduction	318
Legal framework: immigration enforcement powers	318
Removal/deportation and Article 8 issues	338
Removal issues pertaining to children	356
Detention and removal	362
Appeal issues	372

Chapter 6 Refugee and trafficked children 379

Child refugees: the profile and practice	380
Child refugees	401
The application process	416
Exclusion from protection	426
Child trafficking and modern slavery victims	442
Care and protection for child refugees and modern slavery victims	458

Chapter 7 Child movement: the family jurisdiction 487

Introduction	488
Jurisdiction issues	490
Child travel: the family arrangements	515
Child abduction or unlawful retention	530
Public law child placements outside England and Wales	539
Child protection international risks	571

Chapter 8 Intercountry adoption and kafalah guardianship 589

Introduction	590
Intercountry adoption: case types and care arrangements	592
Core adoption legislation	595
Standing to seek an adoption order: habitual residence and domicile	597
Child protections	601
Foreign adoptions with legal effect	603
Foreign element adoptions: the entry requirements	608

Restricted entry adoptions	616
Relevant domestic adoption procedures	618
Hague Convention adoptions	628
Adoptions where the UK is the State of origin	632
Adoptions where the UK is the receiving State	637
Recognition of the Hague adoption	642
Hague immigration requirements	643
Kafalah and special guardianship	644
Immigration Rules regarding adopted and kafalah children	657

Chapter 9 Surrogate born children: their family status, entry and stay 663

Introduction	663
International policy and practice on surrogacy	665
Parentage	667
Parental and adoption orders	670
UK law on surrogacy	674
Parental order criteria	676
Surrogacy arrangements: the criteria	682
Surrogacy: the nationality and immigration arrangements	695

Chapter 10 Welfare benefits for migrant families and children 705

Desmond Rutledge

The welfare benefits system	707
The eligibility rules for welfare benefits	713
Welfare benefits for families and young persons	740
Claims, decisions and appeals in welfare benefits	756
Support for asylum seekers and other migrants facing destitution	761

Index 779