

Contents

Acknowledgments	xii
Dear reader	xiv
 Introduction	 1
Premises	1
The plight of the young	2
Brief overview of Youth Climate Courts	4
Purposes of Youth Climate Courts	7
How to read this book	10
 1 How does a Youth Climate Court work?	 13
Why conduct a Youth Climate Court?	13
Whom should Youth Courts put on trial?	14
Roles of the Youth Climate Court team	15
The youth judge	16
The question to be decided	16
The youth prosecuting team	17
The youth liaison for the government representative to the court	18
Youth jury members	18
Media organizer (for news reporters, bloggers, social media outlets, etc.)	19
Video-recording organizer	19
Adult advisor or mentor?	20
But will governments even show up?	20
Youth Climate Courts' teeth	21
The prosecutor's argument	23
The verdict	24
If not guilty	24
If guilty	24

Issuing a mandate	24
Mandate options	24
Restorative justice process	24
Climate emergency and Climate Action Plan	26
Climate-in-all-policies rule	26
Formally endorse and promote the Declaration on Human Rights and Climate Change	27
Add climate language or amendment to founding document	27
Divest city or county investments from fossil fuel corporations	27
Artistic installations	28
Any combination of the above	28
Climate emergency declarations	28
Climate Action Plans	30
International coalition of Youth Courts	32
Basic steps in the process of developing a Youth Climate Court	34
Adaptable, flexible, malleable, innovative	37

2	What are human rights?	42
	What are human rights?	43
	Modern history of human rights	44
	Human rights as moral and legal standards	45
	Why human rights?	46
	The purpose of governments	51
	Human rights obligations of governments	52
	Tools available in human rights advocacy	53
	Telling the story	53
	Claiming moral authority with Human Rights Assessments, reports, Tribunal and Inquiry findings	53
	Exercising moral power: Inquiries, Tribunals, and Youth Climate Courts	54
	The power of the moral	54
3	Which specific human rights?	60
	Environmental justice	61
	Right to life	63
	Right to health	66
	Right to an adequate standard of living	68
	Right to food	70
	Right to water and sanitation	72
	Rights of the child	74
	Rights of vulnerable populations	76

The right of Indigenous peoples to own, use, develop, and control traditional lands and water	77
Right to a healthy environment	79
Human rights documents	82
Coda: Youth interventions for an addicted world	89
Appendices	95
Appendix I: The Declaration on Human Rights and Climate Change	95
Preamble	97
The following principles are declared	98
Appendix II: The Restorative Justice Only option	101
Appendix III: A note on Rights of Nature	103
Appendix IV: Measures that local governments should consider including in their Climate Action Plans	104
Appendix V: Potential risks to youth organizers?	106