

HISTORIC CORE

Prague I – Hradčany

Panorama over the Vltava

The Prague Castle silhouette was over a thousand years in the making 14

Fairy-tale houses

Once for the poor, Golden Lane is one of Prague's most photogenic places 18

Wilderness and flowerbeds

Kings, emperors and presidents all wandered the Prague Castle gardens 20

How the city grew

Hradčany Square is not just another Prague Castle courtyard 22

A prestigious address

The grand palaces on Hradčany Square were the pride of their owners 24

To the sound of Marian hymns

Loreto Square was named after the Loreto with its famed carillon 26

Monastery with an amazing library

Strahov Monastery is a first-rate historical site 28

Around the New World

A hundred years ago, New World was home to the poor, today it's an attraction 32

Prague I – Malá Strana

The nicest route to the Castle

The famed Nerudova Street is lined with picturesque buildings and palaces 34

Green oases with a view

The gardens below Prague Castle are lovely from spring to fall 36

New energy at Klárov

At Kunsthalle Praha, fine art has replaced electricity 38

The supreme commander's residence

The stunning Wallenstein Palace redrew the map of Malá Strana 40

Square with pearl of Baroque Prague

Malostranské náměstí is one of the city's most attractive places 44

Baroque at your fingertips

Vrtba Garden is small in size, but great in significance 46

A cute face and full wardrobe

The Infant Jesus of Prague attracts admirers from around the world 48

A hill full of attractions

Who wouldn't love magical walks around the slopes of Petřín? 50

The Sokols' home in the heart of Prague

Tyrš House is a vast complex crowned by a grand Mannerist palace 54

Island of artists and romantics

Visitors rank Kampa among the world's prettiest urban islands 56

Into the dark heart of the artist

Herget Brickworks is now home to the Franz Kafka Museum 58

Prague I – Malá Strana, Old Town

A stone witness to history

For centuries Charles Bridge has been a world-famous landmark of the capital 60

The foundations of stone Prague

The hidden remnants of Romanesque structures attest to the city's thousand-year history 64

Prague I – Old Town

From mills to museum

Novotný Footbridge is tied to milling, water supply and music 66

Gateway to learning

The former Jesuit college of Clementinum is today the largest national library 68

A Baroque giant among dwarves

Clam-Gallas Palace: a county residence nestled between medieval homes 70

The square of Master Jan's chapel

Betlémské náměstí is famed for Hus's church and a special museum 72

Symbol of Old Town

Despite the tumults of history, Old Town Hall has endured nearly 700 years 74

A square like no other

Old Town Square – a backdrop for Czech history 76

Under the protection of Saint Wenceslas

The Czech patron has watched over Charles University since it was founded 80

Mozart's shrine of culture

The Estates Theater has been in continuous operation for four centuries 82

Old Town thoroughfare

Celetná Street only measures 400 meters, but it is one of the city's most lively 84

A proud representative of the city

The Art Nouveau Municipal House witnessed the birth of an independent Czechoslovakia 88

Czech Assisi

The Convent of St Agnes was Prague's first major Gothic work 92

House of artists on the Vltava

The spectacular Rudolfinum serves music and the fine arts 94

Center of culture in the heart of the city

The path to building the Central Library was long 98

Prague 1 – Josefov
The mysterious fifth district
Jewish Quarter, Prague ghetto, fifth district...
Josefov was all of these.	100

Prague 1 – New Town
A pilgrimage site for beer drinkers
One of the oldest Czech breweries U Fleků
has been brewing beer over 500 years	104
Hotel with a touch of the Orient
The Art Deco Imperial Hotel still exudes
First Republic elegance.	106
A house made of building blocks
The Legiobank building is a representative
example of Czech Rondocubism.	108
Prague's new beating heart
The new and old-new Masaryčka spices
up Prague's center	110
A palace worth every penny
The Czech National Bank headquarters was built
as a corporate project	112
Where history was rewritten
Wenceslas Square is the heart of the capital
and a symbol of Czech statehood	114
A living textbook of architecture
The first half of the 20th century saw many
distinctive buildings added to Wenceslas Square.	116
Unique movie screens
Iconic Prague cinemas: Lucerna, Světozor,
Edison Filmhub	118
From passage to passage
New Town is full of passages leading to back
alleys and shops	120
Divine calm in the city center
At the Church of Our Lady of the Snows and the
adjacent garden time passes more slowly	122
Sign of a new era
The Mining and Metallurgy Company Palace
is associated with modern technology.	124
In symbiosis and contrast
Drn and UMPRUM Technology Center –
contemporary in the historic	126
Pride of Prague, glory of the nation
The National Theater – perhaps the most beautiful
Czech secular building of the 19th century	128

Prague 1, 2 – New Town
Appreciated in good time
The Dancing House is perhaps the capital's
most striking post-revolution structure	132

Prague 2 – New Town
A student enclave
The area around the Na Slupi Botanical Garden –
an oasis of calm – is bustling	134
The father of the nation's monastery
Gothic jewel, or last gasp of modernity?
Emmaus is both	136

Church of the magnificent seven
The Cathedral of Sts Cyril and Methodius
has been part of modern Czech history	138
Behind the walls of bare brick
The Apolinář Maternity Hospital has been
open over 150 years.	140

GREATER PRAGUE

Prague 2
Castle, fortress and symbol of the nation
Majestic Vyšehrad is the scene of many legends	144
Angled surfaces and sharp edges
The cubist architecture below Vyšehrad cliff
has no parallel in the world	148
Art Nouveau cathedral for locomotives
Fanta's historic Main Railway Station building
has had a storied life	150
An oasis of calm in Vinohrady
Havlíčkovy sady offers relaxation for all romantic souls . . .	154

Prague 3
Rocket ship taking off
The Žižkov TV Tower – Prague's tallest structure
provokes with its futuristic design	156
Prague's first "skyscraper"
Radost surprises visitors with its sophistication	158
A monument to heroism
The National Monument at Vítkov
has a storied history.	160

Prague 4
A monumental congress center
The former Palace of Culture was to show how
developed post-war Czechoslovakia was	164
A quarter on the water
Picturesque Podolí is famed for a number
of water-based attractions.	166
An air of the First Republic
Small savers from Vinohrady pooled resources
for the Spořilov garden city	168
Distances among the panel homes
Novodvorská housing estate was decorated
with valuable works of art at its inception	170

Prague 4, Prague – Kunratice
An oasis among the high rises
Kunratice Forest is home to the only castle ruin
in Prague.	172

Prague 5
A hill of movie magic
Barrandov can pride itself on film studios
and a geological reserve	176
Hidden treasure
St Gabriel's Abbey is a prime example
of a Beuronese "total artwork"	178
Thoughtful architecture
Both structures at ČSOB Campus in Radlice
are environmentally friendly.	180

A piece of wilderness in the capital Prokop and Dalej Valleys hold fossils and rare flora and fauna	182
Prague 6
Game reserve from Renaissance times When Praguers hear Hvězda, they think of the forest park and summer house	184
A monastery that rose from the dead Břevnov Monastery has been serving the Benedictines for over a thousand years	186
Gigantic sports grounds The century-old Strahov Stadium was not just for sports and music	190
Heritage zone among the greenery Střešovice villas – architectural treasures in the west of Prague	192
Functionalism over the Vltava The First Republic Baba villa colony is unique in Europe	194
Center of Czech polytechnics The National Technical Library in Dejvice is a second home for students	196
Symbiosis of nature and structure Villa Bílek is a unique representative of architectural symbolism	198
Prague 7
A small town in the big city Letná used to be a place for mass celebrations, now people come to relax	200
Functionalist twins The Agricultural and Technical Museums at Letná are a showcase of Czech ingenuity	204
Putting functionalism to work Trade Fair Palace and the Electric Company building symbolize Prague's evolution	206
From abattoir to shopping and culture Holešovice Market is a heritage-protected complex with a colorful history	208
By airship to artwork The DOX Center for Contemporary Art was both factory and offices	210
Pavilions, palaces and theaters Výstaviště Praha is the oldest trade fair complex in the country	212
The green lungs of the big city Greenery and landmarks, that's the Royal Game Reserve, or Stromovka	214
Industrial masterpiece Nowhere in Europe is there anything else like Bubeneč's Old Wastewater Treatment Plant	216
Prague – Troja
The grandest villa in Troja The Troja Chateau – a masterpiece with a gorgeous garden and unique staircase	218
Troja's world of animals and plants Prague Zoo and Prague Botanical Garden are attractive tourist destinations	222
Prague 8
A former fringe transformed Once industrial Karlín is characterized by converted factories	224
Inspired by Paris Invalidovna – a helping hand for war veterans	226
A prefab testing ground Sídliště Invalidovna was model living in the 1960s	228
Cubist burial ground of heroes Ďáblice Cemetery is a testament to the crimes of repressive regimes	230
Prague 19
Not just for aviation buffs The Kbely Aviation Museum is one of the largest of its kind in Europe	232
Prague – Klánovice
Riviera by the woods Klánovice is filled with forest air and First Republic elegance	234
Prague – Zbraslav
A witness to time below the oppidum Zbraslav Monastery survived the Hussites, the Swedes and church reforms	236
Multiple municipal districts
Concrete, steel and faith A trio of modern churches in Vinohrady and Vršovice	238
In praise of raw materials Prague Brutalism is a phenomenon as admired as it is hated	240
Majestic arches Prague's viaducts are crowning achievements on its railway map	242
Over water and valley Prague's bridges help shape the city's skyline as well as its daily life and history	244
Tunnels full of art and design The Prague metro transports over a million passengers a day	248
Ferry 'cross the Vltava Prague's ferries – the capital's oldest mass transit system	250
Down to the river to relax Prague's islands are sites for sports, dancing and relaxation	252
Index	254
Photo Credits	255