

Contents

Preface	7
Introduction	9
1. Cross-Cultural Exchanges	9
2. Social Networks	14
3. The Early Renaissance	17
1. Networks of Diplomacy	23
1. Introduction. Geopolitics and the Political Structure of the Italian Polities and the Kingdom of Hungary, Croatia, and Slavonia	23
2. The Circulation of Royalty between the Peninsula and the Kingdom	33
3. Italian Ambassadors in the Kingdom	42
4. Italian Churchmen in the Kingdom	66
2. Business Networks	79
1. Introduction. Italian Commercial Centres as Sites of Production and Connectivity	79
2. Italian Royal Administrators and Officers in the Kingdom	93
3. Italian Merchant-Bankers and Papal Collectors in the Kingdom	110
4. Italian Merchants in the Kingdom	125
3. Migration Networks	151
1. Introduction. Italian Cities as Sites of Migration (Florence, Rome, and Venice)	152
2. Hungarian-born Skilled and Unskilled Workers in the Peninsula	157
3. Hungarian-born Soldiers in the Peninsula	166
4. Hungarian-born Pilgrims and Members of Religious Orders in the Peninsula	176

4. Networks of the High Culture	181
1. Introduction. The Cultural Novelties of the Italian Renaissance and their Diffusion	182
2. Hungarian-born University Students in the Peninsula	192
3. Italian Humanists and Other Learned Men in the Kingdom	201
4. Italian Artists in the Kingdom	207
Conclusions	219
Appendices
1. Royals and Popes	227
2. Italian Diplomatic Personnel	229
3. Documents Regarding the Italian Commercial Consulate in Buda	231
4. Italians in Ecclesiastical and Secular Offices in the Kingdom	241
5. Italians in the Kingdom	244
6. Hungarian Subjects in Italy	248
Bibliography	253
Index	297