

Comment

- Davide Paris: The Right to Vote of Non-Resident Citizens: Not Just How, But Whether* 673

Re-Reading Historic Articles in the ZaöRV: Anniversary Series

- Paulina Starski: Varying Degrees of Openness Towards the International and Supranational Legal Sphere in the German Constitutional Order – A Contemporary Appraisal of and Reflection on Helmut Steinberger’s ‘Lines of Development in the Recent Case-Law of the Federal Constitutional Court on Questions of International Law’* –* 685

Abhandlungen / Articles

- Hellen Keller / Viktoriya Gurash / Corina Heri: Do We Need a World Climate Court? 725
- Yoshifumi Tanaka: Resilience of UNCLOS in the Context of the Ocean-Climate Nexus: Reflections on Due Diligence Obligations in the ITLOS Advisory Opinion on Climate Change 757
- Moritz J. Pollack: Animal Welfare Conditionality in the World Bank’s Legal Framework 781
- Ignacio de la Rasilla: The Rise, Relative Fall and Globalisation of Transnational Law Journals (1964-2024) 803
- Stefano Dominelli: Of Queens and Kings: Hereditary Heads of State under the Prism of International Law and Human Rights 837
- Adam Ploszka / Jan Denka: Economic and Social Rights in Central and Eastern Europe – Insights from the Perspective of the UN Human Rights System 863
- Sarah Werderitsch: Die (unvollendete) Reform des Europäischen Stabilitätsmechanismus (ESM) 891

Review Symposium

- Alexander Wentker / Erik Tuchtfeld: Digital Empires – A Review Symposium* 921
- Erik Tuchtfeld: It’s Worth to Look Beyond the Empires – It’s Also Less Disappointing* 931

Stefania Di Stefano: Tech Companies in the Digital Wars: Rebels or Stormtroopers?	941
Amnon Reichman / Kai Purnhagen: Taking Empires Seriously: Three Missing Elements in Bradford's 'Digital Empires'	949
Anu Bradford: Digital Empires: A Response to Book Reviews	961