

Just for You

A Collection of 11 Piano Solos in a Wide Variety of Styles and Moods
Specially Written to Inspire, Motivate and Entertain

DENNIS ALEXANDER

One of the biggest challenges facing every teacher is finding good, sound motivational repertoire to inspire the junior-high and high school student who wants music which is fun to practice and entertaining at the same time. Every piece in this collection is written with those particular students in mind. Whether it be a slow, lyrical ballad such as "Gentle Hearts" or a more robust, jazzy piece like "Jumpin' the Ivories," your students will respond with a smile and renewed enthusiasm, which is sure to make your teaching even more fun and rewarding. Many of the pieces could be performed by one student playing the melody line on an electric keyboard while the accompaniment is played on an acoustical piano. I hope that you and your students enjoy playing these pieces as much as I enjoyed writing them. Sharing music with others is always more fun when you find a collection written Just for You!
