

Contents

List of plates	ix
List of figures	xi
List of tables	xiii
List of more online case studies	xv
Acknowledgements	xvii
PART I INTRODUCTION: TOURISM AND GEOGRAPHY	1
Chapter 1 Tourism, geography and geographies of tourism	3
PART II THE EMERGENCE OF GLOBAL TOURISM	29
Chapter 2 The birth of modern tourism	31
Chapter 3 International patterns of travel and tourism	51
PART III TOURISM'S ECONOMIC, ENVIRONMENTAL AND SOCIAL RELATIONS	77
Chapter 4 Costs and benefits: the local economic landscape of tourism	79
Chapter 5 Tourism, sustainability and environmental change	104
Chapter 6 Socio-cultural relations and experiences in tourism	125
PART IV UNDERSTANDING TOURISM PLACES AND SPACES	147
Chapter 7 Cultural constructions and invented places	149
Chapter 8 Theming the urban landscape	173
Chapter 9 The past as a foreign country: heritage as tourism	199
Chapter 10 Nature, risk and geographic exploration in tourism	217
Chapter 11 Consumption, identity and specialty tourisms	235

PART V	APPLIED AND FUTURE TOURISM GEOGRAPHIES	253
Chapter 12	Planning and managing tourism development	255
Chapter 13	Emerging and future tourism geographies	276
	Appendix: a guide to the use of the Internet in tourism geography	291
	Glossary	294
	Bibliography	297
	Index	324