

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

What this book is for.

8

PART ONE

THINKING LIKE A DEBATER

Chapter One

Why you should think like a debater

12

- What's wrong with debate now
- The alternative offered by structured competitive debate in schools
- How debate can make the world a better place

Chapter Two

How to think like a debater

16

- How to research, retain and understand the key facts of any issue
- How to analyse and understand the points of disagreement around any issue
- How to cultivate the attitudes of mind of a successful debater

Chapter Three

How to use this book

30

- An introduction to the format of the book
- Suggestions on how to use it either as an individual reader or in a debating club or class

PART TWO

SOCIETY

Chapter Four

Free speech

36

- What are the limits of free speech?
- What should be allowed? What should be banned?

Chapter Five

Democracy

64

- How does democracy work?
- How should it work?
- How might it work better?

Chapter Six

Education

106

- Who gets to decide what gets taught?
- What is the point of exams?
- Are private schools justified?
- Are selective schools justified?
- Are faith schools justified?

Chapter Seven

Immigration

144

- Who should be allowed into our country?
- Who should be kept out?
- Who gets to decide and on what grounds?
- What are the costs and benefits of immigration?

PART THREE JUSTICE

Chapter Eight

Race

164

- Is racism best dealt with at an individual level or at a systemic level?
- Are quotas the most effective and fairest way to deal with racism?
- Is encouraging people to celebrate their racial and cultural identity an effective way of dealing with racism?

Chapter Nine

Colonialism

194

- Should we pay reparations for slavery?
- Should we take down statues which celebrate colonialists?
- Should we return artefacts from museums to the countries they were taken from?

Chapter Ten

Crime, punishment and the law

230

- Why do people commit crimes?
- How should criminals be treated?
- How can we prevent crime?
- Is breaking the law ever justified?

Chapter Eleven

War and violence

256

- When is war justified?
- Is pacifism justified?
- How can / should international bodies prevent war?
- Is it ever justifiable to use violence?

PART FOUR

MONEY

Chapter Twelve

Economic inequality

288

- How much economic inequality should there be?
- What are the costs and benefits of economic inequality?

Chapter Thirteen

The welfare state

314

- Who should be given which benefits? How much? Why?
- How should the welfare state be funded?
- What are the costs and benefits of the welfare state?

PART FIVE

SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

Chapter Fourteen

This online life

340

- What benefits does the internet bring?
- What harms does it bring?
- Who owns it? Who should own it?
- How far should it be regulated?

Chapter Fifteen

Climate change

368

- How should the climate crisis be tackled?
- At a personal level? National level? International level?
- What sacrifices is it fair to expect people to make?
- What is the most effective and fairest way to reduce carbon emissions?

PART SIX

LIFE AND DEATH

Chapter Sixteen

Abortion

394

- What are the arguments for and against legal abortion?
- How freely should abortion be permitted and on what terms?

Chapter Seventeen

Assisted dying

414

- What are the arguments for and against legalising assisted dying?
- On what grounds?

AFTERWORD

How to sustain and promote the thinking habits of a debater