CONTENTS

Preface		xxi
T	TE TENTAL DE COUCC
1. Th	HE TRIAL PROCESS
§1.1.	Introduction	1
§1.2.	Local practices and procedures	9
§1.3.	Trial date assignment	2
§1.4.	Jury selection	3
§1.5.	Preliminary instructions of law	4
§1.6.	Opening statements	4
§1.7.	Plaintiff's case-in-chief	5
§1.8.	Motions after plaintiff rests	6
§1.9.	Defendant's case-in-chief	7
§1.10.	Motions after defendant rests	7
§1.11.	Plaintiff's rebuttal and defendant's surrebuttal cases	8
§1.12.	Motions at the close of all evidence	8
§1.13.		8
§1.14.	Closing arguments	8
	Jury instructions	9
§1.16.	Jury deliberations and verdict	9
§1.17.	Post-trial motions and appeal	10
A STATE OF THE STA	Conclusion	11
II. T	HE PSYCHOLOGY OF PERSUASION
§2.1.	Introduction	13
§2.2.	Behavioral science and jury research	13
	1. Affective reasoning	14
	2. Beliefs and attitudes	15
	3. Decision making	16
	4. What influences the jury	18
	a. Sender credibility	18
	b. Receiver capacities	19
20 9	c. Effective messages	20
§2.3.	What research means for trial lawyers	23
	 Prepare from the jury's point of view Develop a theory of the case 	23 24
	2. Develop a theory of the case	44

	3. Select themes and labels	25
	4. Emphasize the people	26
	5. Use storytelling techniques	26
	6. Focus on the key disputed facts and issues	27
	7. Understand your role as an advocate	27
§2.4.	Conclusion	28
TTT	TI IDV CET ECTION
111.	JURY SELECTION
§3.1.	Introduction	31
§3.1.	Do you want a jury?	31
83.4.	1. Who is the judge?	31
	2. Does your case have jury appeal?	32
§3.3.	Jury examination and selection methods	32
85.5.	1. How many jurors and alternates will be selected?	33
	2. What jury questioning system will be used?	33
	a. Lawyer examination	34
	b. Judge examination	34
	c. Hybrid system	34
		34
	d. Questionnaires a. Individual and group questioning	35
	e. Individual and group questioning What kinds of questions will be permitted?	35
	3. What kinds of questions will be permitted?	35
	a. Open approach b. Postrictive approach	35
	b. Restrictive approach	36
	4. What jury selection system will be used?	36
	a. Strike system	37
	b. Panel system	37
	5. How many challenges does each side have,	37
	and how will they be exercised?	37
	a. Cause challenges	38
	b. Peremptory challenges	30
	c. How many peremptory challenges does	20
	each side have?	39 39
29 1	d. How will challenges be exercised in court?	41
§3.4.	Psychology of prospective jurors	41
	1. What are prospective jurors feeling and thinking?	41
	2. What are you trying to accomplish during	42
	jury selection?	42
	3. Approaches to questioning prospective jurors	43
	a. Beliefs and attitudes	45
	b. Likability	45
	c. Body language
	d. Persuaders, participants, and nonparticipants	46 47
89 F	4. Juror profile chart
§3.5.	How to question jurors	48
	1. Topics checklist	48
	 Questioning techniques a. Getting information from jurors 	50
	a. Octung imormation from furors	50

c. Introductory and concluding comments d. Group questions 3. Example of voir dire $3.6. Summary checklist IV. OPENING STATEMENTS $4.1. Introduction Opening statements from the jury's perspective 1. Explain your theory of the case 2. Themes, labels, and the first minute 3. Storytelling and people 4. Request a verdict Strategic and evidentiary considerations 1. Be efficient 2. Do not argue or state personal opinions 3. Do not overstate the evidence 4. Consider using exhibits and visual aids 5. Anticipate weaknesses 6. Waiving or reserving opening statements 7. Lawyer's position and delivery $4.4. Content of effective opening statements 1. Introduction 2. Parties 3. Scene 4. Instrumentality 5. Date, time, weather, and lighting 6. Issue 7. What happened 8. Basis of liability/nonliability or guilt/nonguilt 9. Anticipating and refuting other side 10. Damages (civil cases only) 11. Conclusion Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant		h Conveying concents to jurors
d. Group questions 3. Example of voir dire System Summary checklist IV. OPENING STATEMENTS System Opening statements from the jury's perspective 1. Explain your theory of the case 2. Themes, labels, and the first minute 3. Storytelling and people 4. Request a verdict 4. Request a verdict 5. Do not argue or state personal opinions 1. Be efficient 2. Do not argue or state personal opinions 3. Do not overstate the evidence 4. Consider using exhibits and visual aids 5. Anticipate weaknesses 6. Waiving or reserving opening statements 7. Lawyer's position and delivery System Content of effective opening statements 1. Introduction 2. Parties 3. Scene 4. Instrumentality 5. Date, time, weather, and lighting 6. Issue 7. What happened 8. Basis of liability/nonliability or guilt/nonguilt 9. Anticipating and refuting other side 10. Damages (civil cases only) 11. Conclusion System opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant		b. Conveying concepts to jurors c. Introductory and concluding comments
3. Example of voir dire Summary checklist IV. OPENING STATEMENTS §4.1. Introduction §4.2. Opening statements from the jury's perspective 1. Explain your theory of the case 2. Themes, labels, and the first minute 3. Storytelling and people 4. Request a verdict §4.3. Strategic and evidentiary considerations 1. Be efficient 2. Do not argue or state personal opinions 3. Do not overstate the evidence 4. Consider using exhibits and visual aids 5. Anticipate weaknesses 6. Waiving or reserving opening statements 7. Lawyer's position and delivery $4.4. Content of effective opening statements 1. Introduction 2. Parties 3. Scene 4. Instrumentality 5. Date, time, weather, and lighting 6. Issue 7. What happened 8. Basis of liability/nonliability or guilt/nonguilt 9. Anticipating and refuting other side 10. Damages (civil cases only) 11. Conclusion §4.5. Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant		,
$4.1. Introduction $4.2. Opening statements from the jury's perspective 1. Explain your theory of the case 2. Themes, labels, and the first minute 3. Storytelling and people 4. Request a verdict $4.3. Strategic and evidentiary considerations 1. Be efficient 2. Do not argue or state personal opinions 3. Do not overstate the evidence 4. Consider using exhibits and visual aids 5. Anticipate weaknesses 6. Waiving or reserving opening statements 7. Lawyer's position and delivery $4.4. Content of effective opening statements 1. Introduction 2. Parties 3. Scene 4. Instrumentality 5. Date, time, weather, and lighting 6. Issue 7. What happened 8. Basis of liability/nonliability or guilt/nonguilt 9. Anticipating and refuting other side 10. Damages (civil cases only) 11. Conclusion $4.5. Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant
S4.1. Introduction S4.2. Opening statements from the jury's perspective 1. Explain your theory of the case 2. Themes, labels, and the first minute 3. Storytelling and people 4. Request a verdict S4.3. Strategic and evidentiary considerations 1. Be efficient 2. Do not argue or state personal opinions 3. Do not overstate the evidence 4. Consider using exhibits and visual aids 5. Anticipate weaknesses 6. Waiving or reserving opening statements 7. Lawyer's position and delivery S4.4. Content of effective opening statements 1. Introduction 2. Parties 3. Scene 4. Instrumentality 5. Date, time, weather, and lighting 6. Issue 7. What happened 8. Basis of liability/nonliability or guilt/nonguilt 9. Anticipating and refuting other side 10. Damages (civil cases only) 11. Conclusion S4.5. Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant	826
S4.1. Introduction Opening statements from the jury's perspective 1. Explain your theory of the case 2. Themes, labels, and the first minute 3. Storytelling and people 4. Request a verdict Strategic and evidentiary considerations 1. Be efficient 2. Do not argue or state personal opinions 3. Do not overstate the evidence 4. Consider using exhibits and visual aids 5. Anticipate weaknesses 6. Waiving or reserving opening statements 7. Lawyer's position and delivery Content of effective opening statements 1. Introduction 2. Parties 3. Scene 4. Instrumentality 5. Date, time, weather, and lighting 6. Issue 7. What happened 8. Basis of liability/nonliability or guilt/nonguilt 9. Anticipating and refuting other side 10. Damages (civil cases only) 11. Conclusion S4.5. Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant	33.0.	Summary Checknist
Opening statements from the jury's perspective 1. Explain your theory of the case 2. Themes, labels, and the first minute 3. Storytelling and people 4. Request a verdict Strategic and evidentiary considerations 1. Be efficient 2. Do not argue or state personal opinions 3. Do not overstate the evidence 4. Consider using exhibits and visual aids 5. Anticipate weaknesses 6. Waiving or reserving opening statements 7. Lawyer's position and delivery St.4. Content of effective opening statements 1. Introduction 2. Parties 3. Scene 4. Instrumentality 5. Date, time, weather, and lighting 6. Issue 7. What happened 8. Basis of liability/nonliability or guilt/nonguilt 9. Anticipating and refuting other side 10. Damages (civil cases only) 11. Conclusion St.5. Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant	IV.	PENING STATEMENTS
Opening statements from the jury's perspective 1. Explain your theory of the case 2. Themes, labels, and the first minute 3. Storytelling and people 4. Request a verdict Strategic and evidentiary considerations 1. Be efficient 2. Do not argue or state personal opinions 3. Do not overstate the evidence 4. Consider using exhibits and visual aids 5. Anticipate weaknesses 6. Waiving or reserving opening statements 7. Lawyer's position and delivery St.4. Content of effective opening statements 1. Introduction 2. Parties 3. Scene 4. Instrumentality 5. Date, time, weather, and lighting 6. Issue 7. What happened 8. Basis of liability/nonliability or guilt/nonguilt 9. Anticipating and refuting other side 10. Damages (civil cases only) 11. Conclusion St.5. Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant	211	Introduction
1. Explain your theory of the case 2. Themes, labels, and the first minute 3. Storytelling and people 4. Request a verdict Strategic and evidentiary considerations 1. Be efficient 2. Do not argue or state personal opinions 3. Do not overstate the evidence 4. Consider using exhibits and visual aids 5. Anticipate weaknesses 6. Waiving or reserving opening statements 7. Lawyer's position and delivery St.4. Content of effective opening statements 1. Introduction 2. Parties 3. Scene 4. Instrumentality 5. Date, time, weather, and lighting 6. Issue 7. What happened 8. Basis of liability/nonliability or guilt/nonguilt 9. Anticipating and refuting other side 10. Damages (civil cases only) 11. Conclusion St.5. Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant	0
2. Themes, labels, and the first minute 3. Storytelling and people 4. Request a verdict Strategic and evidentiary considerations 1. Be efficient 2. Do not argue or state personal opinions 3. Do not overstate the evidence 4. Consider using exhibits and visual aids 5. Anticipate weaknesses 6. Waiving or reserving opening statements 7. Lawyer's position and delivery St.4. Content of effective opening statements 1. Introduction 2. Parties 3. Scene 4. Instrumentality 5. Date, time, weather, and lighting 6. Issue 7. What happened 8. Basis of liability/nonliability or guilt/nonguilt 9. Anticipating and refuting other side 10. Damages (civil cases only) 11. Conclusion St.5. Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant	84.4.
3. Storytelling and people 4. Request a verdict Strategic and evidentiary considerations 1. Be efficient 2. Do not argue or state personal opinions 3. Do not overstate the evidence 4. Consider using exhibits and visual aids 5. Anticipate weaknesses 6. Waiving or reserving opening statements 7. Lawyer's position and delivery St.4. Content of effective opening statements 1. Introduction 2. Parties 3. Scene 4. Instrumentality 5. Date, time, weather, and lighting 6. Issue 7. What happened 8. Basis of liability/nonliability or guilt/nonguilt 9. Anticipating and refuting other side 10. Damages (civil cases only) 11. Conclusion St.5. Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant
4. Request a verdict Strategic and evidentiary considerations 1. Be efficient 2. Do not argue or state personal opinions 3. Do not overstate the evidence 4. Consider using exhibits and visual aids 5. Anticipate weaknesses 6. Waiving or reserving opening statements 7. Lawyer's position and delivery St.4. Content of effective opening statements 1. Introduction 2. Parties 3. Scene 4. Instrumentality 5. Date, time, weather, and lighting 6. Issue 7. What happened 8. Basis of liability/nonliability or guilt/nonguilt 9. Anticipating and refuting other side 10. Damages (civil cases only) 11. Conclusion St.5. Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant
Strategic and evidentiary considerations 1. Be efficient 2. Do not argue or state personal opinions 3. Do not overstate the evidence 4. Consider using exhibits and visual aids 5. Anticipate weaknesses 6. Waiving or reserving opening statements 7. Lawyer's position and delivery St.4.4. Content of effective opening statements 1. Introduction 2. Parties 3. Scene 4. Instrumentality 5. Date, time, weather, and lighting 6. Issue 7. What happened 8. Basis of liability/nonliability or guilt/nonguilt 9. Anticipating and refuting other side 10. Damages (civil cases only) 11. Conclusion St.5. Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant		,
1. Be efficient 2. Do not argue or state personal opinions 3. Do not overstate the evidence 4. Consider using exhibits and visual aids 5. Anticipate weaknesses 6. Waiving or reserving opening statements 7. Lawyer's position and delivery §4.4. Content of effective opening statements 1. Introduction 2. Parties 3. Scene 4. Instrumentality 5. Date, time, weather, and lighting 6. Issue 7. What happened 8. Basis of liability/nonliability or guilt/nonguilt 9. Anticipating and refuting other side 10. Damages (civil cases only) 11. Conclusion §4.5. Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant	84 3	1
2. Do not argue or state personal opinions 3. Do not overstate the evidence 4. Consider using exhibits and visual aids 5. Anticipate weaknesses 6. Waiving or reserving opening statements 7. Lawyer's position and delivery §4.4. Content of effective opening statements 1. Introduction 2. Parties 3. Scene 4. Instrumentality 5. Date, time, weather, and lighting 6. Issue 7. What happened 8. Basis of liability/nonliability or guilt/nonguilt 9. Anticipating and refuting other side 10. Damages (civil cases only) 11. Conclusion §4.5. Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant	31.0.
3. Do not overstate the evidence 4. Consider using exhibits and visual aids 5. Anticipate weaknesses 6. Waiving or reserving opening statements 7. Lawyer's position and delivery §4.4. Content of effective opening statements 1. Introduction 2. Parties 3. Scene 4. Instrumentality 5. Date, time, weather, and lighting 6. Issue 7. What happened 8. Basis of liability/nonliability or guilt/nonguilt 9. Anticipating and refuting other side 10. Damages (civil cases only) 11. Conclusion §4.5. Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant
4. Consider using exhibits and visual aids 5. Anticipate weaknesses 6. Waiving or reserving opening statements 7. Lawyer's position and delivery 84.4. Content of effective opening statements 1. Introduction 2. Parties 3. Scene 4. Instrumentality 5. Date, time, weather, and lighting 6. Issue 7. What happened 8. Basis of liability/nonliability or guilt/nonguilt 9. Anticipating and refuting other side 10. Damages (civil cases only) 11. Conclusion 84.5. Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant
5. Anticipate weaknesses 6. Waiving or reserving opening statements 7. Lawyer's position and delivery §4.4. Content of effective opening statements 1. Introduction 2. Parties 3. Scene 4. Instrumentality 5. Date, time, weather, and lighting 6. Issue 7. What happened 8. Basis of liability/nonliability or guilt/nonguilt 9. Anticipating and refuting other side 10. Damages (civil cases only) 11. Conclusion §4.5. Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant
6. Waiving or reserving opening statements 7. Lawyer's position and delivery S4.4. Content of effective opening statements 1. Introduction 2. Parties 3. Scene 4. Instrumentality 5. Date, time, weather, and lighting 6. Issue 7. What happened 8. Basis of liability/nonliability or guilt/nonguilt 9. Anticipating and refuting other side 10. Damages (civil cases only) 11. Conclusion S4.5. Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant
7. Lawyer's position and delivery S4.4. Content of effective opening statements 1. Introduction 2. Parties 3. Scene 4. Instrumentality 5. Date, time, weather, and lighting 6. Issue 7. What happened 8. Basis of liability/nonliability or guilt/nonguilt 9. Anticipating and refuting other side 10. Damages (civil cases only) 11. Conclusion S4.5. Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant		•
1. Introduction 2. Parties 3. Scene 4. Instrumentality 5. Date, time, weather, and lighting 6. Issue 7. What happened 8. Basis of liability/nonliability or guilt/nonguilt 9. Anticipating and refuting other side 10. Damages (civil cases only) 11. Conclusion 84.5. Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant
2. Parties 3. Scene 4. Instrumentality 5. Date, time, weather, and lighting 6. Issue 7. What happened 8. Basis of liability/nonliability or guilt/nonguilt 9. Anticipating and refuting other side 10. Damages (civil cases only) 11. Conclusion 84.5. Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant	§4.4.	Content of effective opening statements
3. Scene 4. Instrumentality 5. Date, time, weather, and lighting 6. Issue 7. What happened 8. Basis of liability/nonliability or guilt/nonguilt 9. Anticipating and refuting other side 10. Damages (civil cases only) 11. Conclusion 84.5. Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant	68	1. Introduction
4. Instrumentality 5. Date, time, weather, and lighting 6. Issue 7. What happened 8. Basis of liability/nonliability or guilt/nonguilt 9. Anticipating and refuting other side 10. Damages (civil cases only) 11. Conclusion §4.5. Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant		2. Parties
5. Date, time, weather, and lighting 6. Issue 7. What happened 8. Basis of liability/nonliability or guilt/nonguilt 9. Anticipating and refuting other side 10. Damages (civil cases only) 11. Conclusion 84.5. Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant		3. Scene
6. Issue 7. What happened 8. Basis of liability/nonliability or guilt/nonguilt 9. Anticipating and refuting other side 10. Damages (civil cases only) 11. Conclusion §4.5. Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant		4. Instrumentality
7. What happened 8. Basis of liability/nonliability or guilt/nonguilt 9. Anticipating and refuting other side 10. Damages (civil cases only) 11. Conclusion 84.5. Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant		5. Date, time, weather, and lighting
8. Basis of liability/nonliability or guilt/nonguilt 9. Anticipating and refuting other side 10. Damages (civil cases only) 11. Conclusion §4.5. Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant
9. Anticipating and refuting other side 10. Damages (civil cases only) 11. Conclusion §4.5. Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant		1 1
10. Damages (civil cases only) 11. Conclusion §4.5. Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant		,
11. Conclusion Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant
 Examples of opening statements 1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong
1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant
Opening statement — prosecution Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant	94.5.
Opening statement — defense 2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant
2. Civil case (products liability): Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant
Hi-Temp., Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant
Opening statement — plaintiff Opening statement — defendant		.1
Opening statement — defendant
V DIDECT EXAMINIATION		opening statement — determant
V. DIKEGI EXAMINATION	V. D	IRECT EXAMINATION
	§5.1. §5.2.	Introduction Elements

	1. Keep it simple	96
	2. Organize logically	97
	3. Use introductory and transition questions	97
	4. Introduce witness and develop background	98
	5. Set the scene	101
	6. Recreate the action	104
	a. Point of view	104
	b. Pace	104
	c. Sensory language	106
	d. Present tense	108
	7. Use nonleading questions	109
	8. Have the witness explain	111
	9. Volunteer weaknesses	111
	10. Use exhibits to highlight and summarize facts	112
	11. Listen to the answers	112
	12. Lawyer's position	113
	13. Prepare the witness	114
§5.3.	Occurrence witnesses	116
	1. Example — direct examinations in a civil case	117
	2. Example — direct examinations in a criminal case	127
	3. Example — direct examinations with a different organization	134
§5.4.	Conversations and statements	139
§5.5.	Telephone conversations	141
	1. Witness knows other person	141
	2. Witness does not know other person, but later learns identity through subsequent conversations	142
	3. Witness does not know the person, but later learns identity through some transaction	143
	4. Witness does not know the person, but has dialed a listed business telephone number and spoken with the person there	145
§5.6.	Refreshing a witness' recollection	145
§5.7.	Opinions of lay witnesses	147
§5.8.	The records witness	148
§5.9.	Character witnesses	153
	1. Law	153
	2. Foundation	154
	3. Tactics	155
§5.10.	Adverse witnesses	157
§5.11.	Hostile witnesses	158
§5.12.	Using deposition transcripts and videotapes	159
§5.13.	Judicial notice and stipulations	161
	1. Judicial notice	161
	2. Stipulations	161
§5.14.	Redirect examination	162

VI. EXHIBITS

§6.1.	Intro	oduction	167
§6.2.	How	to get exhibits in evidence	168
	Step	1. Have the exhibit marked	169
	Step	2. Show the exhibit to opposing counsel	169
	Step	3. Ask the court's permission to approach the witness	170
	Step	4. Show the exhibit to the witness	170
	Step	5. Lay the foundation for the exhibit	171
	Step	6. Offer the exhibit in evidence	171
	Step	7. Have the exhibit marked in evidence	172
	Step	8. Have the witness use or mark the exhibit,
		if appropriate	172
	Step	9. Obtain permission to show or read the exhibit to the jury	172
	Step	10. "Publish" the exhibit	173
§6.3.	Four	ndations for exhibits	176
	1.	Tangible objects	178
	2.	Tangible objects — chain of custody	179
	3.	Photographs, motion pictures, and videotapes	183
	4.	Diagrams, models, and maps	185
	5.	Drawings by witnesses	187
	6.	Demonstrations by witnesses	188
	7.	X-ray films	189
	8.	Sound and video recordings	191
	9.	Computer-generated graphics and animations	194
	10.	Signed instruments	195
	11.	Checks	198
	12.	Letters	200
		a. Letter sent to your party by another party	201
		b. Letter sent by your party to another party	202
	13.	Business records	204
	14.	Computer records	209
	15.	Recorded recollection	210
	16.	Copies	212
	17.	Certified records	213
	18.	Summaries	214
	19.	Stipulations	215
	20.	Pleadings and discovery	216
§6.4.	Plan	ning, preparing, and using visual aids and exhibits	217
	1.	Develop a visual strategy	217
	2.	Prepare courtroom visual aids and exhibits	220
		a. Objects	221
		b. Photographs and videotapes	222
		c. Diagrams, models, and charts	225
		d. Records and documents	232
		e. Summaries	234

		f. Computer graphics, animations, and data	00=
		storage	237
	3.	When to use exhibits	237
		a. During the direct examination	239
		b. At the end of the direct examination	239
		c. Handling multiple exhibits	240
	4.	How to use exhibits	241
		a. Have the witness hold the exhibit	241
		b. Have the witness mark or read from the exhibitc. Use enlargements of photographs, documents,	241
		and illustrations	242
		d. Using exhibits during the cross-examination	245
		e. Exhibits and jury deliberations	246
VII.	CROS	SS-EXAMINATION
§7.1.	Intr	oduction	247
§7.2.	Sho	uld you cross-examine?	247
		Has the witness hurt your case?	248
		Is the witness important?	248
		Was the witness' testimony credible?	248
		Did the witness give less than expected on direct?	249
		What are your realistic expectations on cross?	249
		What risks do you need to take?	249
§7.3.		poses and order of cross-examinations	250
§7.4.	Eler	ments of cross-examinations	250
	1.	Structure	250
		a. Have your cross-examination establish as few	950
		basic points as possible	250
		b. Make your strongest points at the beginning	251
		and end of your cross-examination	251
		c. Vary the order of your topics d. Don't report the direct examination!	251
	2.	d. Don't repeat the direct examination! Rules for cross-examinations	251
	4.	a. Start and end crisply	252
		b. Know the probable answer to your questions	404
		before you ask the questions	252
		c. Listen to the witness' answers	252
		d. Don't argue with the witness	252
		e. Don't ask the witness to explain	253
		f. Don't ask the one-question-too-many	253
		g. Stop when finished	254
	3	Questioning style	254
	0.	a. Make your questions leading	254
		b. Make a statement of fact and have the witness	401
		agree to it	255
		c. Use short, clear questions, bit by bit	256
		d. Keep control over the witness	257

		e. Project a confident, take-charge attitude	259
		f. Be a good actor	259
		g. Use a natural style	259
	4.	Lawyer's position	260
§7.5.	Elic	citing favorable testimony	261
	1.	Did part of the direct examination help?	261
	2.	Can the witness corroborate your case?	261
	3.	What must the witness admit?	262
	4.	What should the witness admit?	262
§7.6.	Disc	crediting unfavorable testimony	263
	1.	Discredit or limit the testimony	263
		a. Perception	264
		b. Memory	267
		c. Communication	269
	2.	Discredit the conduct	271
§7.7.	Imp	peachment	273
314	1.	Impeachment requirements	273
		a. Must have good faith	274
		b. Must raise on cross-examination	274
		c. Must prove up if required	274
		d. When to prove up	275
	2.		275
		a. Bias and prejudice	275
	¥	b. Interest	276
		c. Motive	277
	3.	Prior convictions	278
		Prior bad acts	280
		Prior inconsistent statements	280
		a. Techniques	281
		b. Prior testimony	285
		c. Written statements	287
		d. Oral statements	288
		e. Pleadings and discovery	289
		f. Omissions	290
	6.	Contradictory facts	293
		Bad character for truthfulness	293
		Completing the impeachment	294
	•	a. Bias, interest, and motive	295
		b. Prior convictions	295
		c. Prior inconsistent statements	295
		d. Contradictory facts	298
		e. Failure to prove up	298
	Q	Impeaching out-of-court declarants	298
§7.8.		cial problems	299
5		Evasive witnesses	299
		Argumentative witnesses	300
	3.		301
	4	"Apparent" cross-examinations	301
	5	Opposing counsel	302
	J.	Opposing counsel	304

Contents

XV

xvi Contents

§7.9.	Special witnesses	303
	1. The records witness	303
	2. The character witness	304
§7.10.	Summary checklist	306
VIII.	EXPERTS
§8.1.	Introduction	309
§8.2.	The law of experts	309
30.4.	1. Is the subject matter appropriate for expert testimony?	309
	2. Is the expert qualified?	310
	3. Is the expert's testimony reliable?	310
	4. Were tests properly done in this case?	312
	5. Are the sources the expert relied on proper?	312
	6. When should the sources be disclosed?	313
	7. Are the sources themselves admissible?	313
	8. Are the forms of the expert's testimony proper?	314
	9. Can the expert testify to ultimate issues?	314
§8.3.	Experts from the jury's perspective	315
	1. The jury's concern about experts	315
	2. Expert as a teacher	316
	3. How jurors decide between competing experts	316
§8.4.	Direct examination	317
	1. Selection and preparation of experts	317
	a. Selection	317
	b. Preparation	317
	2. Order of direct examination	319
	3. Introducing the expert	319
	a. Who is the expert?	319
	b. What did the expert do?	320
	c. Can I trust the expert?	321
	4. Background	323
	a. Education and training	323
	b. Experience	325
	c. Tendering the witness as an expert	327
	d. Stipulations to qualifications	327
	5. Opinions	328
	a. "Opinion or otherwise"	328
	b. Hypothetical questions	329
	6. Bases for opinions	331
	a. Sources for opinion	331
	b. Sources for opinion meet Daubert standards	333
	c. Basis for opiniond. Exhibits and visual aids	334
	e. Explanations	335 336
§8.5.	Examples of direct examinations	338
30.5.	1. Treating physician in personal injury case	338
	1. Trading physician in personal injury case	330

	Contents	xvii
	2. Pathologist in homicide case	344
	3. Economist in wrongful death case	351
	4. Engineer in products liability case	360
	5. Accountant in commercial case	367
	6. Safety expert in slip and fall case	376
§8.6.	Cross-examination	378
0	1. Preparation	378
	2. Cross-examination approach	379
	3. Specific cross-examination techniques	380
	a. Qualifications	380
	b. Bias and interest	383
	c. Data relied on	386
	d. Assumptions	388
	e. Prior inconsistent statements	390
	f. Treatises	391
	g. Experts disagree	393
§8.7.	Examples of cross-examination	395
§8.8.	Redirect examination	399
IX.	CLOSING ARGUMENTS
20.1	Introduction	101
§9.1.	Introduction Introductions and instructions conference	401 401
83.4.	Jury instructions and instructions conference 1. When to draft jury instructions and submit them	401
	to the judge	402
	2. How to draft jury instructions	402
	3. How to draft verdict forms	403
	4. How to argue and preserve the record at the	100
	instructions conference	404
§9.3.	Closing arguments from the jury's perspective	405
	1. The first minute	406
	2. Argue!	407
	3. Efficiency	407
§9.4.	Strategic considerations	407
	1. Use your themes and labels	407
	2. Argue your theory of the case	408
	3. Argue the facts and avoid personal opinions	408
	4. Use exhibits and visual aids	409
	5. Use instructions	410
	6. Use rhetorical questions	411
	7. Use analogies and stories	412
	8. Argue strengths	412
	9. Deal candidly with weaknesses	413
	10. Force your opponent to argue his weaknesses	413
80 5	11. How do you deliver your closing argument?	414
§9.5.	Contents and organization of effective closing arguments 1. Introduction	416 416
	2. Issues	417
	- Ibbutb	11/

	3. What really happened and proof	418
	4. Basis of liability/nonliability or guilt/innocence	422
	5. Damages (in civil cases)	422
	6. Instructions	427
	7. Refuting the other side	428
	8. Conclusion	430
§9.6.	Rebuttal	430
§9.7.	Examples of closing arguments	431
	1. Criminal case (murder): People v. Sylvester Strong	432
	Closing argument — prosecution	432
	Closing argument — defense	438
	Rebuttal argument — prosecution	444
	2. Civil case (products liability):
	Hi-Temp, Inc. v. Lindberg Furnace Company	447
	Closing argument — plaintiff	447
	Closing argument — defendant	452
	Rebuttal argument — plaintiff	457
X. O	BJECTIONS
0707		100
§10.1.	Introduction	463
§10.2.	Making objections before trial	463
	1. Pretrial motions to preclude evidence	464
	2. Pretrial memorandum and conference	464
	3. Motions in limine	464
§10.3.	When to make objections during trial	465
	1. Jurors dislike objections	465
	2. Will the answer hurt your case?	466
	3. Does your objection have a solid legal basis?	466
	4. Protect the record	466
	5. Can you use an objection as a tactical device?	466
§10.4.	How to make objections during trial	466
	1. Timeliness	467
	2. Legal basis	467
	3. Procedure	469
§10.5.	Offers of proof	470
§10.6.	Evidentiary objections	471
	1. Relevance (FRE 401 et seq.)	473
	2. Materiality	474
	3. Incompetent (FRE 601-606)	474
	4. Privileged communication (FRE 501)	475
	5. Original documents (best evidence) rule
	(FRE 1001 et seq.)	476
	6. Parol evidence rule	477
	7. No foundation	477
	8. No authentication (FRE 901 et seq.)	478
	9. Hearsay (FRE 801 et seq.)	479
	10. Leading (FRE 611)	481
	11. Narrative (FRE 611)	481

19 Complement (EDE 701)	100
	482 483
1	484
•	485
	485
	400
	486
	486
▲	487
1	487
	488
	488
1	489
	490
	490
,	491
* *	492
	492
	492
	493
	493
	493
	493
	494
	494
	494
	494
	494
	495
	495
	495
	495
	496
	496
1	496
•	496
	12. Conclusions (FRE 701) 13. Opinions (FRE 701 et seq.) 14. Repetitive (asked and answered) (FRE 611) 15. Assuming facts not in evidence 16. Misstates evidence/misquotes witnesses 17. Confusing/misleading/ambiguous/vague/unintelligible 18. Speculative 19. Compound 20. Argumentative 21. Improper characterization 22. Unresponsive/volunteered 23. Prejudice outweighs probativeness (FRE 403) 24. Cumulative (FRE 611) 25. Beyond the scope (FRE 611) 26. Improper impeachment (FRE 613) Other objections 1. Jury selection a. Mentioning insurance b. Discussing law c. Discussing facts 2. Opening statements a. Arguing the law or the instructions b. Argumentative c. Mentioning unprovable evidence d. Mentioning unprovable evidence e. Giving personal opinions f. Discussing the other side's evidence 3. Closing arguments a. Misstating evidence b. Misstating law and quoting instructions c. Using an impermissible per diem damages argument d. Giving personal opinions e. Appealing to jury's bias, prejudice, and pecuniary interest f. Personal attacks on parties and counsel g. Prejudicial arguments

xx Contents

§11.7.	Themes and labels	509
§11.8.	Dramatize, humanize, visualize using people stories	510
§11.9.		511
§11.10		511
0	. Jury selection preparation	513
	. Witness selection and preparation	515
0	1. Witness selection	515
	2. Witness preparation	516
	3. Direct examination outline	519
	4. Witness list	520
§ 11.13	. Exhibit selection and preparation	521
0	Order of proof	522
0	. Cross-examination preparation	524
0	Examples of trial strategy	526
0	1. The case — Robert Johnson v. Mary Smith	526
	2. Plaintiff's strategy	528
	3. Defendant's strategy	534
§11.17		539
3-2	1. Strategy	539
	2. Execution	539
	a. Openings	539
	b. Witnesses	539
	c. Exhibits	540
	d. Closings	540
	3. Delivery	540
	a. Verbal	540
	b. Nonverbal	540
VII	BENCH TRIALS
711.	DEIVOIT TRUMES
§12.1.	Introduction	541
$12.2.		542
0	Know your judge	543
§12.4.		545
§12.5.		548
314.0.	1. Opening statements	548
	2. Direct examinations	550
	3. Cross-examinations	552
	4. Exhibits	553
	5. Experts	555
	6. Closing arguments	557
	7. Findings of fact and conclusions of law	559
§12.6.		559
814.0.	Conclusion
	DAI DIII ES OF EMDENICE (co com con dod RAL RULES OF EVIDENCE (as amended	561
thro	ough December 1, 2000)	301
Index		593
2100000		