

Dialogues: Interrogating the Foundations of European Transnational Private Law

Introducing European transnational private law – A conversation starter Anna Beckers, Hans-Wolfgang Micklitz, Rodrigo Vallejo, and Pia Letto-Vanamo	385
On the Europeanness of transnational private law: Human rights due diligence laws inside and out Chantal Mak	396
How private is European transnational private law? Kaarlo Tuori	407
European solidarity and the imaginative ordering of markets Damian Chalmers	415
Three futures of the world: ‘Armageddon’, ‘Brazilianization’ or ‘regulatory hegemony’ Poul F. Kjaer	431
European transnational private law – on the surface and in legal culture Thomas Wilhelmsson	439

Article

Patient mobility, the EU Charter’s ‘right to health care’, and Member State competence: Towards a new role for fundamental rights Harry Botterill	450
---	-----

Case Notes

Joined Cases C-554/21, C-622/21 and C-727/21 Hann-Invest : From defending to building the rule of law Fran Marko Stojković	474
The end does (not) justify the means: Mutual trust and fundamental rights safeguards after the ECJ’s Real Madrid judgment Emilia Sandri, Johan Meeusen, and Mathieu Leloup	489

Trans* EU citizens: Free beyond movement? The Grand Chamber in Case C-4/23

Mirin, EU:C:2024:845

Fulvia Ristuccia and Alessandro Marcia