

Contents

Acknowledgements

ix

PART ONE

The dramatic genre of the horse dance (jaranan)

- I The horse dance (jaranan) 3
 - Prelude in Pulihrejo and introduction to Samboyo Putro 3
 - The aim of this book 8
 - Arrangement of the book 10
- II The horse dance under the Orde Baru 13
 - The horse dance in Java 13
 - The popularity of the horse dance in Kediri 15
 - The supporters of the horse dance 17
 - The trance in the horse dance 18
 - Contacts with the immaterial world 18
 - Some theories about the trance in the horse dance 21
 - Comments 25
 - The trance master (gambuh) 25
 - The relation between the gambuh and the dhalang ruwat 30
 - The horse dance in the interface between a national and a regional identity 34

PART TWO

Aspects of the genre of the horse dance

- III Samboyo Putro and other genres of horse dance groups 41
 - Introduction 41
 - The history of Samboyo Putro 43
 - The members of Samboyo Putro 45
 - The actors' props, parts and costumes 48
 - The jaranan sénthéréwé according to the report Deskripsi rekapitulasi 63
 - The jaranan jawa Haswo Usodo and other genres of horse dance groups 67
 - The jaranan pégon 69
 - The jaranan brèng 69
 - The jaranan ké pang 70

The jaranan buta	70
Conclusion	73

IV	Performances by horse dance groups	77
	Introduction	77
	Occasions for performances by horse dance groups	78
	Kaul	78
	Family celebrations: weddings and circumcisions	79
	Village or neighbourhood community celebrations	80
	Community celebrations by private or government institutions	81
	Processions	81
	Itinerant horse dance groups (jaranan barangan)	84
	The kuda képang in Jombor	84
	Comments	87
	The jathilan in Yogyakarta	88
	Comments	89
	Sedentary horse dance groups	90
	The slametan , a typical ritual in Javanese society	91
	The slametan for young people in Menang	94
	Comments	94
	The slametan for young people in Mlorah	96
	Comments	97
	A horse dance demonstration by Samboyo Putro	97
	Comments	98
	Bu Dhukun's surprise in Menang	99
	Comments	101
	The blessing of the penis (njurungi planangan) in Sumberagung	103
	Comments	103
	The performance for a konduran	105
	Comments	105
	Ad hoc groups in Yogyakarta and Dongko	107
	A prayer for rain	107
	Comments	107
	The Turonggo Yakso in Dongko	108
	Comments	108
	The baritan ritual	109
	Comments	110
	The place and the significance of the horse dance in the festivities	111
V	Rituals surrounding horse dance performances	115
	Introduction	115
	Rituals surrounding the production and maintenance of stage requisites	115
	The ritual preparation of the performers	118
	Samboyo Putro's opening ceremony	120
	The opening ceremony in Mojoroto	122
	Comments	123

	The offerings	125
	The closing ceremony	131
VI	The trance		133
	Introduction	133
	The trance of the four horsemen, a helper and several spectators	135
	Comments	141
	The triggering of the trance, and the trance master's role	142
	The different phases of the trance	146
	The entry of a spirit	147
	The surrender to the trance	150
	The 'recovery' of the trance dancers	162
	The dangers of the trance	164
	The significance of the trance	166
VII	The significance of the horse dance legend		169
	Introduction	169
	The horse dance legend according to Harjono	170
	Comments	172
	The earliest reports of the horse dance legend	172
	Comments	174
	A few Central Javanese horse dance legends	175
	The story of Prince Panji and Princess Sekar Taji	175
	Comments	175
	The downfall of Ki Ageng Mangir	176
	Comments	176
	The legend as told by Samboyo Putro members	177
	The story of Dèwi Sanggalangit according to Pak Samboyo	179
	Comments	180
	The story of Dèwi Sanggalangit according to Pak Dhalang	181
	Comments	181
	The symbolism of the barong	182
	The significance of the legend for the horse dance	184
PART THREE
	Theme and variations: the performance in Pulihrejo
VIII	Pak Dhalang's verbal contribution in Pulihrejo		187
	Introduction	187
	The structure of the performance	187
	The role played by Pak Dhalang	188
	The presentation of the legend	190
	Comments	197
	The remaining, chanted contributions	198
	Comments	207
	Pak Dhalang's contribution as master of ceremonies	208
	Comments	213

IX	The character of the opening dances in Pulihrejo	215
	Introduction	215
	Explanation of the symbols	218
	Jaranan nem : the dance of the six horsemen	220
	Comments	223
	Jaranan pat : the dance of the four horsemen	224
	Comments	226
	Jaranan ro : the dance of the two horsemen	226
	Comments	227
	Kucingan : the dance of Toh Bagus, Pujangga-Anom, Singakumbang, Kethèk, and Macan	227
	Comments	228
	Barongan-cèlèngan : the dance of the six horsemen, Toh Bagus, Singabarong, and Kala Srenggi	229
	Comments	231
X	The element of play in the performance in Pulihrejo	233
	Introduction	233
	The wayang play (jaranan ro)	234
	Comments	236
	Interlude: a bridhèn dance led by youths from Samboyo Putro	238
	Comments	238
	The action in act four (kucingan)	239
	Comments	244
	The final act (barongan-cèlèngan)	245
	Comments	247
	The character of the performance in Pulihrejo	249
XI	Conclusion	251
	Appendix: Transcription of the CD recording	257
	Bibliography	273
	Index	285