

CONTENTS

Acknowledgment	ix
List of Figures and Tables	x
List of contributors	xii
Introduction: Democracy's Crisis and Its Urban Resurgence Gülçin Balamir Coşkun, Tuba İnal-Çekiç, Ertuğ Tombuş	1
PART I
Rethinking Democracy from the Local	13
1 The Dialectic of Urban Democracy: The Post-democratic or the Democratizing City? Erik Swynghedouw	15
2 What Kind of Democratic Project Is the "City"? And What Does the New Municipalism Want to do with It? Ross Beveridge and Philippe Koch	30
3 The Idea of a Democratic City: An Attempt at Typology Verena Frick	42
PART II
Local Governance and Participatory Practices	57
4 Practices of Inclusive Planning and Beyond: Istanbul Metropolitan Municipality and its Vision for 2050 Tuba İnal-Çekiç, Tayfun Kahraman, Meriç Demir Kahraman, and Evrim Yılmaz	59

5	The Role of Civic Initiatives and NGOs in the Democratization of the Public Sphere via Participatory Planning Tools: Case Study of the Bashkortostan Region, Russian Federation Oleg Pachenkov, Olga Sarapulova, Elmira Nizamova, Aleksandra Katasonova, and Darya Efremova	75
6	How do Free Cities Bring their Citizens Back to Politics? Comparing Democratic Innovations in Budapest and Warsaw Daniel Oross and Agnieszka Kampka	97
PART III
	Cities as Sites of Opposition Against Authoritarian Governments: Opportunities and Challenges	115
7	Metropolitan Politics and Administration of Hegemonic and Counter-Hegemonic Projects in Istanbul Ash Yılmaz Uçar	117
8	Disempowerment and Attempts of Self-empowerment: The Case of Istanbul Municipality Oya Yeğen	134
9	New Municipalism in the Global South: The Antinomies of Kurdish Municipalism Fırat Genç	155
PART IV
	Solidarity, Alliances, and Mobilization at the Local Level	171
10	Civil-Society Practice for Housing Refugees in Vienna as a Guidepost for a Solidarity-Based Planning Concept Helena Bernhardt	173
11	The Impact of Urban Solidarity Networks on Local Governance: Exercising Urban Democracy in Izmir, Turkey Aslıhan Aykaç	189
12	From Place of Speculation to Space of Resistance: Transforming Urban Politics on Urban Redevelopment Projects in Seoul Chungse Jung	207
13	Analysis of City Diplomacy in De-democratizing States: The Case of Istanbul Metropolitan Municipality Birgül Demirtaş	230
	Index	245