

---

Contents

Part I Theoretical Conceptual Level 1: The Philosophical Perspective

Philosophical Education Beyond the Classroom: Self-Conceptions, Cooperation Partners and the Question of Compatibility . . . . . 3
Markus Tiedemann

The Philosophy of Place and the Place of Philosophy . . . . . 25
Annika Schlitte

Peripatetic Philosophizing . . . . . 41
Katrin Seele

Education in the Medium of Aesthetics. The Topicality of Schiller’s Theory of Aesthetic Education in the Age of Digitalisation . . . . . 67
Birgitta Fuchs

Part II Theoretical Conceptual Level 2: The Experiential Education Perspective

Adventure Education and School Education . . . . . 85
Werner Michl

A Place-Binding Knot Map. Phronêsis as Outdoor Learning . . . . . 103
Hartley Banack

Part III Exemplary Learning Locations 1: Museums, Cultural Institutions and Memorials

The German Emigration Center Bremerhaven: A Migration Museum as an Extracurricular Place of Learning . . . . . 137
Simone Blaschka

The Military History Museum of the Bundeswehr in Dresden . . . . . 151
Cindy Düring

Theatre Pedagogy at the Staatsschauspiel Dresden . . . . . 163
Bettina Seiler and Marie Hahn

Get Excited First: Art, Philosophy and Self-Motivated Learning in the Museum . . . . .	181
Alke Vierck
The Zoo as a Place of Learning . . . . .	199
Ulrike Barnett and Tobias Rahde
Part IV Exemplary Places of Learning 2: Social Institutions
PeerMediation Behind Bars: A Project for Violence Prevention and Constructive Conflict Management in the Juvenile Detention Centre Berlin . . . . .	217
Birgit Lang
Hospice Is Not a Place, but an Attitude . . . . .	231
Angela Hörschelmann
Pro Familia: Ethical-Philosophical Aspects of Sexuality Education . . . . .	249
Ralf Müller and Bettina Niederleitner
The “Clemens Winkler” Support Centre and the Inclusion of Project Work and Extracurricular Places of Learning . . . . .	261
Ute Schnabel
Part V Exemplary Places of Learning 3: Sacred and Meditative Places
Interreligious Encounter as a Self-Reflexive-Spiritual Experience: Open Mosque Day as Religious Education Practice . . . . .	273
Tarek Badawia and Sezai Cakan
Mosque as an Extracurricular Place of Learning . . . . .	291
Tuba Nur Tekin
“Why Doesn’t Your Mosque Have a Cross?” The New Synagogue Dresden as an Out-of-School Place of Learning . . . . .	301
Gunda Ulbricht
Zen and Contemplation: “Raum für spirituelle Wege Berlin” . . . . .	315
Liliane Ortwein
Part VI Exemplary Learning Locations 4: Experiential Education and Outdoor Education
Alpine Experiential Education: The Mountains as a Place of Learning . . . . .	337
Bernhard Streicher
Outward Bound: Learning with Head, Heart and Hand . . . . .	349
Johannes Krüger

Wilderness Education at “Naturschule Wildniswandern” . . . . .	363
Matthias Blass
Forest Makes School . . . . .	383
Peter Rabe
DKV-Sound-Karate in School Sports from the Student’s Perspective . . . . .	407
Michael Adam and Matthias Lindel
Part VII Methodical-Practical Teaching Examples
Learning Outdoors and Primary School Children: From the Experience of Nature to Philosophical Abstraction . . . . .	427
Helena Graf
I Shall Not Hate: A Theatre Pedagogical Examination of the Phenomenon of Hate and Fromm’s Theory of a Productive Character Orientation . . . . .	439
Marie Hahn
Reflecting on Dying: The Hospice as an Extracurricular Place of Learning . . . . .	463
Stefanie Pagel and Enrico Sperfeld
Stress-Testing Ethics: With Prospective Educators at the Buchenwald Memorial . . . . .	487
Pia Krüger and Markus Tiedemann
Part VIII Empirical-Critical Level
First Surveys and Research Perspectives . . . . .	499
Markus Tiedemann
Exploration: Experiential Education and Philosophizing with Children . . . . .	505
Helena Graf
Correction to: A Place-Binding Knot Map. Phronêsis as Outdoor Learning . . . . .	C1
Hartley Banack	