

CONTENTS

List of contributors	viii
Foreword: public entrepreneurship	xvii
 1 Public sector entrepreneurship Joyce Liddle and John Shutt	 1
 PART I THE FUTURE OF ENTREPRENEURSHIP IN HEALTH/WELFARE AND EMERGENCY SERVICES
 2 Public sector entrepreneurship, governance, and accountability in ambulance services: a case study Merrel Knox and Jonathan Knox	 17
 3 Entrepreneurial Policing, proclivity, and the impact of stressors for Senior Investigating Officers (SIOs) within the police service in the UK Gareth Addidle and Mark Dimelow	 44
 4 Internal consultants as entrepreneurial subjects: enabling hybrid public value through entrepreneurship within the English NHS Sean McCulloch	 63
 5 Sustaining innovation in a complex human system: the case of Creative Minds in South West Yorkshire, England Steven Michael	 79
 6 Navigating boundaries of care: primary care’s role in supporting mental health pathways and care for young people in transition to adult services Gregory Maniatopoulos	 99
 PART II COLLABORATIONS AND MULTI-AGENCY APPROACHES TO ENTREPRENEURSHIP
 7 Public sector entrepreneurship in collaborative delivery: crisis response and coordination Rory Shand	 121
 8 Embedding critical project management approaches into public entrepreneurship Steven Parker, Ros Lishman, and Karen Thompson	 138
 9 Domestic abuse and the family law court experience: co-creating support resources with survivors and practitioners Rima Hussein and Joyce Liddle	 155

- 10 Multi-agency safeguarding as a form of public entrepreneurship 178
Sarah Shorrocks, Steven Parker, Philippa Olive, Gareth Addidle, Mark Dimelow, Douglas Martin, and Tony Proctor

PART III ENTERPRISING GOVERNANCE, PLACE BUILDING, AND DEVELOPMENT

- 11 Local economies and place building post Covid-19: the hidden potential of entrepreneurs and entrepreneurship enablers, and the value of strategic thinking 197
John Thompson
- 12 Birmingham: still an entrepreneurial city? 223
Abigail Taylor and Anne Green
- 13 Public sector entrepreneurship and commercial market participation: the example of business support provision in Scotland, UK 250
Inge Hill and Ronald Macintyre
- 14 Municipal entrepreneurship for the public purpose 270
Neil Barnett, Steven Griggs, and David Howarth
- 15 Ruling the game: how the French model of public sector entrepreneurship reshapes the rules for innovation 287
Nadia Boulmakoul and Ali Ghods
- 16 A new approach to place development and governance: redefining the public sector experiences through human-centred design and gamification principles on a case study in Helsinki 308
Ania Ankowska
- 17 Entrepreneurship and the importance of environmental, social, and economic dimensions of CSR in Czech companies 329
Vriti Sharma and Oto Potluka

PART IV ENTREPRENEURSHIP, SUSTAINABILITY, AND NET ZERO CLIMATE CHANGE

- 18 A paradigm of sustainable enterprise and climate leadership 352
Kunjika Prasai
- 19 Entrepreneurial meso-governance for the Heat and Building Strategy in the UK under the Conservative government 2019-24? 370
Matt Kennedy and John Shutt

- 20 Bridging the digital divide: the role of public sector entrepreneurship
in the Czech Republic 391
Martina Kubíková, Martin Pělucha, and Jana Kouřilová
- 21 Public sector entrepreneurship and future research 411
Joyce Liddle and John Shutt