

---

Contents

---

List of contributors	x
Opening note	xviii
Foreword	xix
Acknowledgements	xxiv
Introduction to the Research Handbook on Human Rights and Poverty	xxv

PART I DEFINITIONS, MEASUREMENTS AND STANDARDS

1	A human rights-based approach to measuring poverty Olivier De Schutter	2
2	From stigma to rights: uncovering the hidden dimension of poverty Magdalena Sepúlveda Carmona	21
3	Current perspectives on global poverty: rights, capabilities and social exclusion Ayşe Buğra	37
4	Is economic inequality a violation of human rights? Gillian MacNaughton	53
5	Poverty and political rights: an exercise of recovery from oblivion Karolina Miriam Januszewski and Manfred Nowak	69
6	Human rights and poverty reduction: what are the linkages? Hans-Otto Sano	88

PART II CROSS-CURRENTS

A. POVERTY, HUMAN RIGHTS AND IDENTITY

7	Breaking the link between poverty and disability: re-purposing human rights in the 21st century Gerard Quinn	106
8	Poverty, older persons and human rights Andrew Byrnes	125
9	Child impoverishment and the human rights of children Wouter Vandenhole	141
10	Capping motherhood Meghan Campbell	156

11	The price that is paid: violence and discrimination based on sexual orientation and gender identity and poverty Victor Madrigal-Borloz	171
12	Assessing racialized poverty: the case of Romani people in the European Union Margareta Matache and Simona Barbu	192
13	Rights, racism and poverty: failures of the global commitment to leave no one behind Gay McDougall	211
B.	POVERTY AND HUMAN RIGHTS, INTERSECTING WITH GEOGRAPHY AND PLACE
14	Immigration, poverty and human rights Tally Kritzman-Amir	230
15	Human rights and a-legality: destitution of persons seeking asylum in the EU Eleni Karageorgiou	247
16	Seeing human rights like a city: the prospects and perils of the ‘urban turn’ Natalia Ángel-Cabo and Luisa Sotomayor	264
17	Local authorities, poverty and the implementation of human rights norms Moritz Baumgärtel	279
18	Addressing poverty at its base: the housing and land rights approach Miloon Kothari	295
19	The land rights-poverty nexus Alfred Lahai Gbabai Brownell Sr.	309
20	Indigenous Peoples’ land rights: a culturally sensitive strategy for poverty eradication and sustainable development Alejandro Fuentes	323
C.	POVERTY, HUMAN RIGHTS AND PARTICIPATION
21	Human rights, poverty and mobilizations Domingo A. Lovera-Parmo	338
22	Advancing human rights through legal empowerment of the disadvantaged Lisa Hilbink and Valentina Salas	354
PART III MECHANISMS AND POLICIES
23	A human rights critique of contemporary social policy paradigms: new behaviourism, social investment and new universalism Volkan Yilmaz	370

24	The human right to housing in the age of financialization Leilani Farha and Kaitlin Schwan	385
25	The right to health for people living in poverty: a human rights perspective Mette Hartlev	401
26	Human rights and abortion access for people living in poverty: implications for the United States and globally Risa E. Kaufman and Diana Kasdan	416
27	What is wrong with the privatization of education as anti-poverty policy from a human rights perspective? Antonio Barboza-Vergara and Esteban Hoyos-Ceballos	432
28	Poverty, labour law and human rights: a necessary connection Lee Swepston and Constance Thomas	446
29	Minimum wage, poverty reduction and human rights in Cambodia: a case study Sophal Chea	462
30	Fair taxes to end poverty Åsa Gunnarsson	474
PART IV STRUCTURAL BARRIERS
31	Climate change, human rights and poverty: intersections and challenges Sumudu Atapattu	489
32	Corruption as a human rights violation Khulekani Moyo	506
33	Conflict, poverty and human rights violations Zafer Kizilkaya	521
34	Human rights, technology and poverty Linnet Taylor and Hellen Mukiri-Smith	535
35	Beyond the state: holding international institutions and private entities accountable for poverty alleviation Lucy Williams	550
	Index	566