

Contents

Programme	7
Foreword	11
Ann Degraeve (President European Archaeological Council)
Introduction: Urban Archaeology and the Cities of Tomorrow	13
Jeroen Bouwmeester and Koen De Grootte (editors)
Time, space and people: urban archaeology and urban futures	17
Paul Belford
Session 1: What Matters
Management of the urban archaeological heritage in Prague: benefits of collaboration	33
David Novák, Veronika Staňková, Vít Rýpar, Jaroslav Podliska and Jan Hasil
Archaeological heritage in the Historic Centre of Riga: status, management, development	39
Sandra Zirne and Egita Lūsēna
Digital Twins at the city and town scale – Europe and beyond	45
Chris Gaffney, Karina Croucher, C. Richard Bates, Olivia Booker, Richard Dunn, Adrian Evans, Elgidius B. Ichumbaki, Joe Moore, Joe Ogden, Joe Ritchings, Syd Simpson, Tom Sparrow, Adrian Walker and Andrew S. Wilson
The present and future role of urban archaeology in Finland	49
Liisa Seppänen
Urban archaeology at a crossroads	55
Jeroen Bouwmeester
Practical heritage conservation in cities in North Rhine-Westphalia – legal framework and a practical example from the church square of St. Stephanus in Beckum, district of Warendorf (Westphalia)	63
Michael Malliaris

Session 2: Asking the Right Question

Environmental archaeology in Brussels (Belgium):
the application of a specific protocol 71

Yannick Devos, Bea De Cupere, Lien Speleers, Katrien Van de Vijver, Nina Van Schepdael, Luc Vrydaghs and Ann Degraeve

GIS tools for urban archaeology in Vienna.
Site mapping with different geometries 75

Kristina Adler-Wölfl and Roman Skomorowski

Significance in the suburbs. Grasping the 'monument syntax' of a Roman town for developers and heritage managers alike (Brigantium/Bregenz, Austria) 81

Andreas Picker

Session 3: Delivering the Goods

Archaeology in the changing townscape:
the case of the Centre region in France 87

Simon Bryant and Mathias Dupuis

Everything clashes in the city: some Spanish examples of peaceful coexistence around archaeological heritage 103

Marta Arcos García

Pipes tell Basel's urban history. Archaeology and the expansion of the district heating network 113

Guido Lassau

Lübeck's Founding Quarter. Urban development at an authentic site 119

André Dubisch