

CONTENTS

List of illustrations ix

List of tables xv

Acknowledgements xvii

PART ONE

IDENTITY PROGRAMMES IN CONTEXT 1

1 Introduction 3

2 A macro history of corporate branding 22

3 Brand identity in Britain 37

PART TWO

IDENTITY PROGRAMMES IN PRACTICE 67

4 Reconfiguring practice: the systematic methods of Henrion Design Associates 77

5 Coordinated but not standardized: the practical rationality of Hans Schleger & Associates 118

6 Setting standards: Design Research Unit and the design manual as an instrument of control 158

PART THREE THEMES, THREADS AND LEGACIES 205

7 Recurrent themes and threads 207

8 The legacy of post-war corporate design methods 216

Notes 227

References 237

Index 251