Contents

List of figures ix
Foreword xii
Acknowledgements xvi

1 Introduction: Architectural Exaptation 1

2 Exaptation: The Interplay between Forms and Functions 13

3 Morphospace: The Possible Is Greater Than the Real 38

4 Back to the Future 50

5 Redefining Architecture: Towards a Taxonomy of Exaptation 63

6 Dynamic Adaptation: Shifting Functions in Architecture across Time and Contexts 75

7 Göbekli Tepe: Challenging Narratives and Rethinking Architecture History 84

8 Learning from History: The Case of Venice and the inexplicability of Mannerism 91

9 Romantic Architecture as a Manifestation of Exaptation: The Case of Alessandro Gherardesca 105

10 Austrian Radicals as a Case Study in Architectural Exaptation 118

11 Temporary Appropriation and the Exaptation of the Urban Space 131

12 Architectural Exaptation and Informality 141

13 Practice Based Research and Exaptation: Case Studies 151

14 The Art Is a Spandrel: Drawings as a Manifestation of Exaptation 169

15 Artificial Intelligence as an Exaptive Design Dimension 185

16 The Italian Pavilion at La Biennale Venezia 2021: Embracing Complexity and Darkness 204

17 Conclusion: Architectural Evolution, Exaptation and Adaptive Spandrels 222

Epilogue 230

Index 231